Martham Mill is a truly idyllic former pumping mill set on the edge of the beautiful River Thurne. Currently an extremely successful holiday let, Martham Mill could be used as an owners retreat or full time home.

The mill is set over five floors. The ground floor is home to the kitchen and sitting room. The lovely character features of the former mill workings are all on show. There is a link through to the single storey addition where you will find a modern bathroom and utility. This utility area could easily be adjusted to create the room of your choice.

Ascending to the first floor, you'll find a cosy bedroom with stunning views. On the next level, there is another bedroom, also boasting great views. The following floor is left for you to create a space of your own choice. The top floor features a room where you can truly appreciate the newly installed mill cap, a genuine piece of craftsmanship. Additionally, this level provides access to the cap walkway, offering spectacular views.

Outside there is a private garden and a lovely raised deck, perfect for relaxing and entertaining. Just opposite, you have your very own private mooring and dock.

The Mill itself is freehold, while the mooring is leasehold and the boat and additional mooring are available via separate negotiation. Parking is conveniently located at the staithe in a private space. Access to the mill is a scenic 400-meter riverside walk.

Currently an extremely successful holiday let, Martham Mill could be used as an owners retreat or full-time home.
