LOCATION

The Land at Old Town Farm is located approximately 1.5 miles to the south of the village of Otterburn. The A68 runs adjacent to the west of the property with access directly from this. The popular market town of Hexham is approximately 20 miles to the south and also includes the well attended Hexham Auction Mart. Otterburn is well served by shops, cafés and other such services.

DESCRIPTION

The land at Old Town provides an exciting opportunity to purchase an extensive and ring fenced block of grassland. The property extends to circa 186.03 acres (75.28 hectares) in total. Predominantly the property is made up of grade 5 permanent grassland extending to circa 182.62 acres (73.9 hectares).

To the north is a useful "inbye" field of grade 4 land, which extends to approximately 9.42 acres (3.81 hectares). Please note that the most northern area is to be excluded from the sale and is being retained by the vendors, an access track will be included within the sale.

There are two blocks of woodland, one block to the centre of the property which has been felled and extends to circa 3.90 acres (1.58 hectares) and a further block of young woodland to the west which extends to circa 4.98 acres (2.02 hectares).

In recent years the land has predominantly been used for sheep and cattle grazing. There is the potential to explore capital generating schemes under the new Sustainable Farming Incentive (SFI). This land also provides an excellent investment opportunity including exploring biodiversity net gain.

Access is taken direct from the A68 to the east and from the north, as shown as an 'A' on the sale plan.

SERVICES

The fields are supplied by natural water supply from Miller Burn.

ENVIRONMENTAL SCHEMES

The land is not subject to any Environmental Stewardship, Countryside Stewardship or similar schemes.
