3 Midgarth Close

Oxshott. KT22 0JY

A wonderful family home located in a gated development in the center of Oxshott, a short distance to the train station and just behind the High Street.

The property is well balanced throughout with both living and bedroom space being comfortable for all needs. The heart of the house is a great family breakfast room that also opens up out to the rear west facing garden, there are also other spaces for a home office, formal dining.

All bedrooms upstairs are doubles with the principle suite benefitting from a walkthrough dressing room and access to the rear terrace that overlooks the garden.

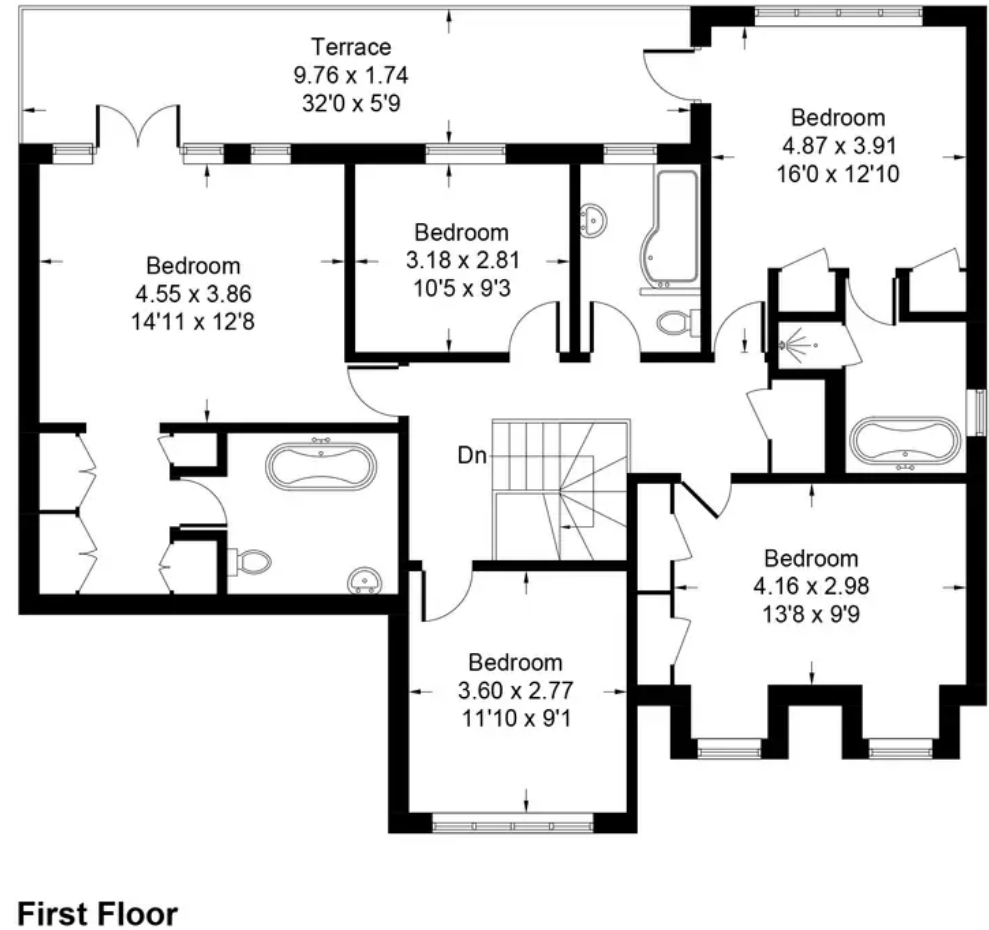

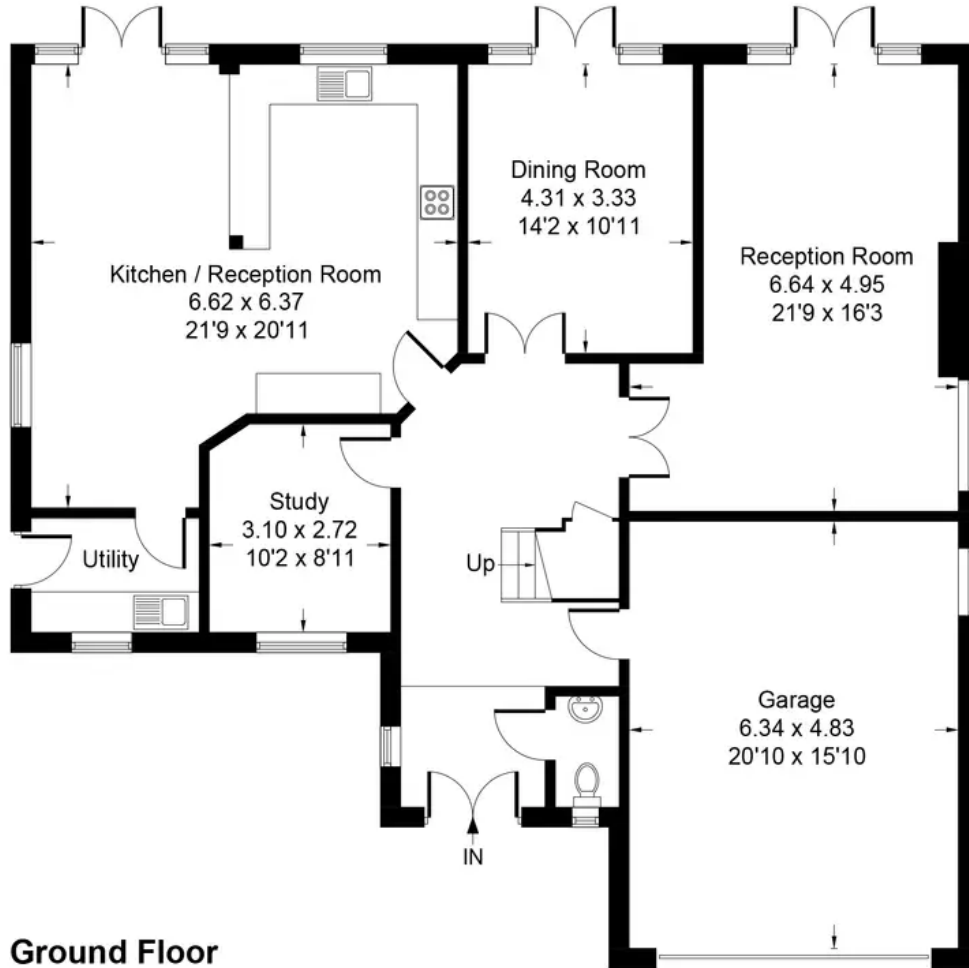

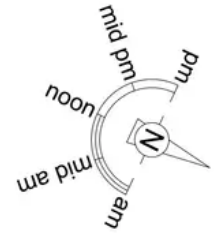

The house is well positioned for many of the local schools making it an attractive option for tenants either moving to the area or more locally.
