This property has been entered into an online auction ending 4th February 2025 at 1 pm.

We are pleased to offer to auction The White Hart that has been in the heart of Bow for over 400 years, now the only remaining public house in the village the current publicans are retiring and offering the property for sale. The pub currently hosts popular quiz nights, has 2 pool teams and is the meeting place for the local football team & golf society. Extra income is gained from the two popular holiday cottages.

The 2 holiday cottages were converted from the original skittle alley and now provide well booked holiday lets currently advertised on Airbnb.

The property is Grade II Listed and has the advantage of no business rates due to being the only public house in the village.

Agents Note: There is an interested party looking to lease the pub should the new owners not want to run the business themselves.

Please see the floorplan for room sizes.

BOW is a hilltop village on the River Yeo. It sits at the edge of an expansive, wild piece of country, bordered by wind-swept fields of wheat, shadowed by Dartmoor in the distance. It shares a church and common history with the nearby hamlet of Nymet Tracey. 'Nymet' means Sacred Grove in Celtic and to the west of Bow is a 3rd millennium BC woodhenge, once a place of spiritual significance for Pagan worshippers in the area. Modern Bow is a peaceful, family-friendly village with a rustic country pub, modern doctors surgery, a popular primary school, Cooperative mini supermarket with the fantastic Bow garden centre & café just beyond.

DIRECTIONS : From Crediton take the A377 in a westerly direction, at the village of Copplestone, take left turn onto the A3072, Bow will be the first village you come to and the pub can be found on the right hand side of the main street.
