A thought from the owners..."

We have owned this lovely 18th Century Cottage over 25 years. The cottage is full of charming features and has been updated whilst retaining its period features. One of our favourite rooms is the bathroom, when you walk through the door it feels so spacious and has a luxurious feeling. The village of Backbarrow is peaceful and a lovely area within the Lake District National Park, which has some fantastic walks and great attractions which are within walking distance from the cottage or just a short drive from the village.
