Details

Townley House, Chatham Street, Ramsgate was designed and built in 1792 and is considered one of the most important buildings in Ramsgate.

It is now being returned to its full glory with a luxury development of 10 unique 1, 2 & 3 bedroom apartments set within this Grade II* listed building.

This iconic mansion was originally designed by one of England's first female architects, Mary Townley, and is now being lovingly and meticulously restored and converted, bringing it back to its original Georgian grandeur.

The apartments have been considerably designed to maximise space, light and style to accommodate modern living, while retaining many of the original endearing features of this remarkable building.

Framing each apartment are sizeable sash windows to allow the light to flood in, complimented by detailed coving, ceiling roses, and original door styles, combined with sleek modern fully equipped kitchens using the most up to date specifications.

Preparing each home to offer the latest technology, the highest quality fixture and fittings and sympathetic flooring and paint finishes.
