Asking Price £650,000

Sussex Square Mews, Brighton, BN2 5LJ

A stunning and superbly presented semi-detached house forming part of the desirable Sussex Square Mews, Brighton. This inviting property boasts three well-appointed bedrooms, with one featuring an en-suite shower room, perfect for added privacy. An additional family bathroom caters to the needs of the entire household.

Conveniently positioned for easy access to the seafront, the charming Kemp Town Village or the esteemed Royal Sussex Hospital, this residence offers more than just a beautiful house - it offers a lifestyle. Imagine strolling through the vibrant streets, enjoying the local shops, cafes, and restaurants, all within reach. Whether you work at the hospital or simply enjoy the Brighton vibe, this location ticks all the boxes.

As you enter through the gated mews, you'll appreciate the secure and private nature of this development. The property itself greets you with a very useful covered side access that is ideal for bicycle storage, making it easier to embrace a healthy and active lifestyle. Beyond that, you'll find a rear patio with a bespoke garden shed/workshop, providing space to unleash your green thumb or indulge in hobbies.
