Accommodation

The superb open plan living dining kitchen has a feature vaulted ceiling with exposed beams and there is also an attractive range of kitchen units with contrasting wood effect work surfaces and sink and drainer. Integrated appliances comprise Bosch induction hob with oven beneath, concealed extractor canopy above, fridge, freezer and dishwasher. The room is dual aspect with glazed front and rear doors. The attractive flooring extends to the side hall which has a large built in cupboard providing storage and also houses the electric boiler and hot water cylinder. Off the hall are three bedrooms, the principal is en suite having a double width shower, pedestal wash hand basin, WC and exquisite tiling. The equally well appointed family bathroom has a bath with a shower and screen above, WC, wash hand basin and superb tiling.

Outside

The property has the benefit of parking for three cars and a generous sized rear garden. Whilst enjoying a very appealing semi rural location, it is also conveniently within walking distance of Weston village with its two excellent country dining pubs. The A51 and nearby A518 provide excellent commuting to many Midland commercial centres.
