Gaywood Road, situated between King's Lynn town centre and Gaywood, is a most convenient residential location. All amenities and transport facilities are positioned within a short 5-10 minute walk away as are the local primary & secondary schools and College of West Anglia, directly behind. 80 Gaywood Road is a period 3 bedroom mid-terrace house which provides living accommodation over three floors. Having been in the same ownership for many years, the property now presents an ideal opportunity to update and is considered ideal for first time buyers. There are front & rear gardens with a useful side passage, gas fired radiator central heating and majority of the windows are double glazed. King's Lynn is an historic market town nestled in West Norfolk on the banks of the River Great Ouse and the Wash. The town provides residents with an array of amenities both in the town centre and nearby Hardwick Retail Park, along with various transport links including mainline railway to London Kings Cross via Ely & Cambridge and A47 trunk road to Norwich & Peterborough. The renowned Norfolk coastline is a short drive away via the A149 coast road, as is Royal Sandringham with acres of delightful park and woodland.
