LOCATION

The property is located along Tudor Road with a pleasant outlook overlooking St Johns Church. It is within a short walk of Broadstone village centre which offers a good range of shops and amenities together with a sports centre and golf club. There are also a number of sought after schools nearby.

THE PROPERTY

The property forms part of a converted Victorian house arranged as two apartments. This property is the first floor apartment. It is beautifully presented throughout benefitting from a number of character features such as high ceilings and some stained glass windows.

A traditional front door with a stained glass surround leads to the entrance hall. Stairs lead to the first floor where there is a large landing area, ideal for a home office.

The sitting room has a bay window overlooking Tudor Road and St Johns Church. There is a feature fire place.

The modern kitchen offers a good range of base and eye level units with fitted appliances including a gas hob and oven plus dishwasher and fridge/freezer with matching fascia units. The boiler also has a matching unit and there is space for a washing machine.

There are two double bedrooms. The bathroom has a white three piece suite including a P-shaped bath with shower over together with wc and wash basin.

Outside there is an allocated parking area, however there is currently no dropped kerb. Permission has previously been passed for this. To the rear of the property is a private garden area laid to shingle for ease of maintenance.
