Plot 4 Tarbert Drive

Murieston, Livingston

Introducing 'The Eden,' a luxurious 4-bedroom detached house situated in the prestigious Wickets Development, nestled within the sought-after Murieston area. This stunning residence presents a rare opportunity to acquire a high-quality, bespoke home in a thriving community. Showcasing an exceptional attention to detail and artistry, this property is a true testament to modern luxury living.

The property features four well-appointed bedrooms, with fitted wardrobes in bedroom one and two, showcasing ample storage space and a touch of elegance. The half landing staircase adds architectural interest while seamlessly connecting the living spaces on different levels.

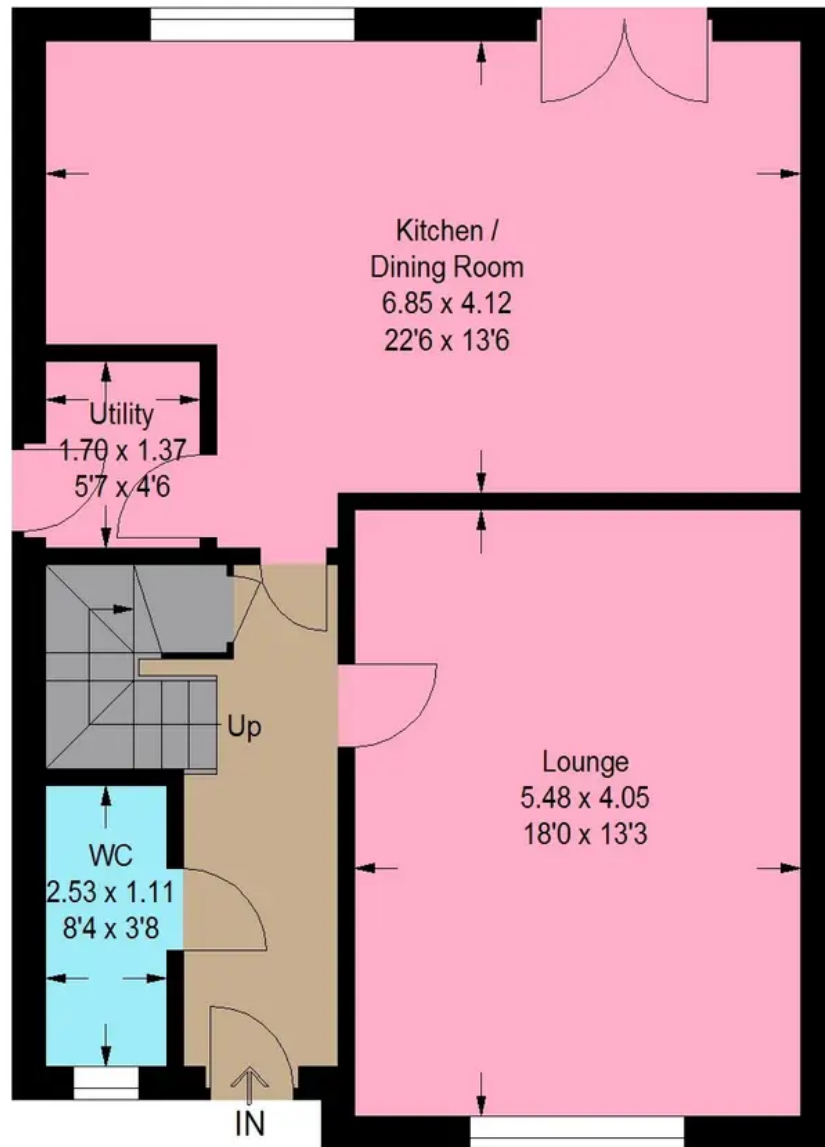

Residents of this elegant home will benefit from the inclusion of solar panels, enhancing energy efficiency and sustainability. Additionally, the property comes with the assurance of a full NHBC Build Warranty, providing peace of mind and protection for years to come.

Conveniently located, Livingston South Train Station is within walking distance, offering easy access to major transportation links for commuters and day-trippers alike. With only 18 properties within the development and two distinct build types available, including the sought-after Eden Build, prospective buyers can be assured of exclusivity and individuality in their new home.
