Fabulous traditional former farmhouse situated in the picturesque hamlet of Ladyhall to the outskirts of Broughton-in-Furness. This beautiful property has been lovingly cared for and maintained by the current owners over many years and offers a stylish, character filled property in a beautiful position. Benefitting from off-road parking including detached garage/barn, attractive gardens with separate garden opposite the property where there is an open fronted garden room offering beautiful views and an excellent seating area. Complete with flagged floors, beamed ceilings and central heating from the oil fired Rayburn within the kitchen, this lovely property will not disappoint. Comprising of entrance hall, lounge, second reception room with stairs to bedroom, kitchen/diner, utility, shower room to ground floor with a further three bedrooms and family bathroom to the first floor. Situated in a quiet, picturesque rural hamlet to the outskirts of Broughton in Furness, offering convenient access to the nearby town of Millom as well as Ulverston and Barrow-in-Furness whilst being a perfect base for also exploring the Southern and western Lake District National Park.

DIRECTIONS

Proceeding along the A595 passing Broughton-in-Furness, drop down the hill towards Duddon Bridge, pass over the bridge and as the road starts to climb the hill, take the turning on the left signed Ladyhall. Follow this lane for about one mile and you will enter the village where the property can be found on the right.
