Seething

QUAINT SCENIC NORFOLK VILLAGE
WITH HISTORIC CHARM

A traditional Norfolk village which has retained its charm. At the centre of the south Norfolk village of Seething you'll find the church of St Margaret and St Regimus, a beautiful building with a thatched roof and early Norman round tower. The village has a variety of amenities such as has a local shop, post office, village hall and a large playing field.

For younger children, there is an excellent first school within the village and a nursery a few miles away. The nearby market town of Loddon offers a secondary school, plus a variety of day to day shops and amenities.

The Cathedral City of Norwich is approximately 9 miles to the north. This ancient city has been home to writers, radicals and fiercely independent spirits for over a thousand years, and today continues in its legacy as an enclave of culture and creativity. It's perfectly preserved medieval streets are home to a thriving community of small businesses, a vibrant food scene and an established arts culture. It is also a gateway to a county that continues to inspire people with its unspoilt landscapes, open spaces and big skies.

Named as one of the best places to live in 2021, Norwich lies approximately 20 miles from the coast at the confluence of the River Yare and the River Wensum, the latter still bending its way through the heart of the city.

Within close proximity of Suffolk as well, Seething has plenty of beautiful areas to explore locally, fully allowing you to relax in a slower way of live and escape the busy cities.
