Full Description

This magnificent detached family home is nestled within one of Tamworth's most revered residential developments. Showcasing contemporary finishes and thoughtful extensions, this property offers a spacious and welcoming environment throughout. Rich in local amenities, the home is ideally situated near a plethora of well-regarded schools and shopping facilities.

Upon arrival, the property impresses with its attractive frontage, featuring neatly kept lawns and a spacious tarmac driveway. Positioned at the end of a cul de sac, the home benefits from both privacy and tranquillity.

GROUND FLOOR

Entering through the composite front door, you are greeted by an exceptional reception hallway, highlighted by captivating 16ft ceilings.

To the right, a generous family lounge offers ample space for various furnishings and gatherings. Internal French doors lead to a stunning open-plan kitchen diner, seamlessly integrating an array of appliances. The central island provides additional seating and storage, whilst the space is further complemented by a purpose-built utility room for added functionality.

A remarkable 'L-shaped' single-storey extension enhances the ground floor, creating a sleek open-plan living area. This space features a cosy family area with bi-folding doors opening onto the rear garden, a formal dining room, and two pitch roof lanterns that flood the area with natural light.

Additionally, a versatile room overlooking the front, currently used as a home gym, offers various accommodation options. A guest cloakroom provides convenience for residents and visitors alike.
