Newmarket is set in attractive countryside on the Suffolk/Cambridgeshire border and is world famous as the headquarters of British horseracing. The town is Britain's largest racehorse training centre offering some of the finest racing in the world as well as Tattersall's sales ring. The market town of Bury St Edmunds (12 miles) and University City of Cambridge (13 miles) offer a wider range of amenities, both of which can be accessed by direct rail links from Newmarket.

With a whole host of character and charm, this deceptively spacious two-bedroom flint cottage is situated within walking distance of the towns centre. The property is stylishly presented and offers versatile accommodation throughout including a sitting room, study, kitchen/dining room, bathroom and two bedrooms. Externally offering pleasantly presented front and rear gardens.

A charming and characterful two-bedroom cottage positioned on the outskirts of Newmarket's town centre.
