An oh-so-pretty two bedroom chain free home in the super location of Tempest Mead, North Weald. Full of crisp, sleek interiors, this is a place that's move-in ready.

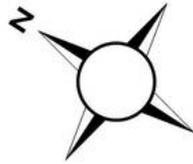

Some homes and locations leave great first impressions, and Tempest Mead is certainly one. Gorgeously renovated this home is awash with whites and neutrals, paired with herringbone flooring underfoot. Step inside to find a handy entrance nook for coats and shoes, before entering the open plan living space ahead. Perfectly formed, a host of crisp white cabinets, marble worktop and integrated appliances fill the kitchen, with the dining area overlooking the rear garden beyond. A room that offers it all, when it's time to relax you've space for a large comfy sofa or two - all set for nights in, in the front of the box! Upstairs, two bedrooms await - both doubles with the primary including its own en-suite shower room. Once again each have been tastefully designed with neutral interiors for your chosen furniture to slot straight in. Completing the upstairs is the family bathroom.

Outside the low maintenance rear garden includes a great selection of planting with lawn and patio areas. Private and peaceful it's the perfect spot to enjoy with family and friends on a sunny day.

There's no doubt that Tempest Mead is a great location to be. From here you're just a short drive into Epping and Harlow and so easy access to the both town centres with their tube and railway lines. Within North Weald itself you've a handy parade of local convenience shops, and for families you've great access to the popular Epping Ongar railway attraction. Whether you're a first time buyer, young family or on the hunt for the perfect pad to downsize, this wonderful home could be the very one for you.
