SERVICES

The property has mains gas, electricity, water, drainage and full alarm system and electronic shutters.

The property is superbly located within the Estate and is within walking distance of the Wentworth Clubhouse as well as the picturesque shopping parades of Virginia Water with excellent shops, restaurants and mainline station with a train service to London Waterloo in approximately 45 minutes. Walks can be enjoyed around the private roads within the Wentworth Estate and Virginia Water Lake, the Savill Garden and Windsor Great Park where Polo is played during the summer months on Smiths Lawn. The Wentworth Estate is most famous for its golf courses and country clubs around the area as well as schooling for children of all ages including TISIS in Thorpe and ACS at Egham. For weekly household shopping, there is a large Waitrose in Sunningdale or Sainsbury's in Staines and more extensive shopping facilities will be found in Windsor, Guildford or Kingston upon Thames. Junction 13 of the M25 is approximately 4 miles away giving access to London, Heathrow and the motorway network.

4 Badgers Hill is a unique and superbly presented home with adaptable accommodation set over two floors incorporating a magnificent indoor swimming pool complex amounting to 5,680 square feet in all. The property is set behind electronically operated wrought iron gates in beautifully maintained and tended gardens of approximately 0.45 acres in all with a sunny south westerly aspect and backing directly onto the Cabrera Trust Woodland Nature Reserve, a coveted and tranquil location. The house has whitewashed internal walls and wooden flooring giving this house a lovely clean spacious feel, similar to a Dutch house. There is a well fitted out Kitchen with utility room leading off. The living room is open plan with a feature fireplace. The upstairs has large bedrooms and a spacious landing. Security shutters have been fitted for peace of mind when travelling away. There is an internal vacuum system housed in the double garage. The house has a low maintenance front garden and is private and secluded, a rare find. The plot could lend itself to re development at a later stage if required, STPP
