Outside. You will find a Private Rear Garden, within Secluded spot backing onto the National museum and the well-maintained courtyard garden, perfect for outdoor relaxation. To the front - Off-Street Parking offering a Convenient off-street parking.

Location. St Fagan is a small residential development situated on the outskirts of Cardiff. It is approximately 5 miles west of the city centre and 5 miles southeast of Llantrisant. St Fagans (Welsh: Sain Ffagan) is a small rural village in the west of the City of Cardiff, Capital of Wales. The community area reaches north to the M4, incorporating the residential estate of Parc Rhydlafer, and south of the River Ely, incorporating the residential estate of Westfield Park. On it's eastern edge it borders the suburb of Fairwater and to the west borders the community of St George's and St Bride's in the Vale of Glamorgan.

The Village itself and immediate surrounding area is a designated Conservation Area. St Fagans lies on the River Ely, and previously had a railway station on the South Wales Main Line. St. Fagans is home to St. Fagans Cricket Club and St Fagans Bowls Club.

It is also home to Wales National History Museum (formerly called the Museum of Welsh Life), St Fagans Castle, St Fagans Old Rectory and St Mary's Church. In 1648, the Battle of St Fagans took place close by.

The village falls of St Fagans, falls into the School catchment which includes the highly regarded Radyr High School & Ysgol Plasmawr providing educational opportunities for residents. The property enjoys easy accessibility to both Fairwater and Radyr Villages, offering various amenities and services. Llantrisant Road provides quick access to the M4 motorway.
