Freehold Guide Price £ 565,000

179 Henley Road

A large mature plot enfolds this delightful three bedroomed, detached, bungalow situated in a prime residential location just over one mile north of Ipswich Town Centre and Christchurch Park.

The property sits perfectly within it's well groomed gardens, well set back from Henley Road, with a larger than average verge assisting the distance.

It was built circa 1961/62 and is of cavity brick construction under a concrete tiled roof. Benefits include good-sized driveway with integral, power controlled, garage, UPVC double glazing, gas central heating, good sized gardens front & rear and vacant possession with no onward chain.

An early internal inspection is strongly advised.

Fully glazed front door to:

Reception Hall

About The Area

The thriving town of Ipswich is set on the estuary of the River Orwell, providing fantastic walks and sailing, and has undergone an extensive gentrification programme in recent years, mainly around the vibrant waterfront offering many bars, restaurants and the marina, and has become a popular "commutable" town to London. Ipswich is the county town of Suffolk and offers a wide variety of shopping, commercial and leisure facilities including a full range of sports clubs and societies, restaurants and high street stores.

There is an excellent choice of schooling within both the state and private sectors. Excellent sailing and golfing facilities are both available nearby or on the popular Suffolk Heritage Coast. Ipswich provides good access to various road networks via the A12 to the South with links to London and the M25 and via the A14 to The Midlands and M11. The railway station provides mainline railway links to London's Liverpool Street with an approximate journey time of sixty-five minutes.
