Wormegay

WHERE HISTORY EMBRACES SERENITY

The village of Wormegay is located approximately seven miles from the historic town of King's Lynn.

A peaceful village setting, yet well-located close to the A10, one of the village's landmarks is its adjacent Wormegay Castle, a unique earthwork motte-and-bailey fortress. The large motte is encircled on three sides by a two-meter-deep ditch.

Close to other nearby village, such as Tottenhill, Shouldham, and Setchey, there are amenities close by but perched on the banks of the River Ouse, nearby King's Lynn offers the most immediate town.

A centre of trade and industry since the Middle Ages, King's Lynn and its rich history is reflected in the many beautiful buildings which still line the historic quarter.

King Street, which runs from Tuesday Market Place to the Custom House, was once known as 'Stockfish Row' for the number of fish merchants that lived there. With a listed building every 26ft, Sir John Betjeman described it as one of the finest walks in England.

With Cambridge, Peterborough and Norwich all within an hour's drive from the town, its direct rail line into London King's Cross - arriving in the capital in just 1 hour 40 minutes - can be caught from Watlington for residents of Wormegay. With the connectivity afford by this area of West Norfolk, growing number of professionals seeking an easy commuter route are attracted to the area and the glorious Norfolk countryside.

Note from the Vendor

"We love the views from our patio overlooking the fields behind. There are often deer, barn owls and other birds of prey in the field."
