The Cathedral town of Bury St Edmunds lies in West Suffolk at the heart of East Anglia famous for its Benedictine Abbey. The town has extensive facilities and amenities to cater for all walks of life and has exceptional transport links. The A14 bypasses the town and links the Midlands with the East coast. London via the M11 is 60 miles. The railway station offers services to Cambridge, Norwich and Ipswich with connections for London. A commuter rail link is available at Stowmarket.

This charming semi-detached house occupies a lovely position close to local amenities and only a short walk to the train station, schooling, town centre, etc. The property could fairly be described as dated in places but nonetheless is well-presented, light and benefits from a garage, off-road parking and large rear garden. NO ONWARD CHAIN.

A well-presented semi-detached house with a large garden, garage and parking.
