Thimble Cottage is a quintessential fisherman's two-bedroom Cottage nestled in the magical village of St Mawes, enjoying stunning views over Summers Beach towards Place Manor. Located just a stone's throw from the harbour, the cottage enjoys a private 'tucked away' location yet is within easy level reach of all the central village amenities. There is plenty of quirk and charm with a small courtyard to the front of the cottage, perfect for a sundowner!

The open-plan ground floor is divided into a cosy living room with multi-fuel burner and window seat, and a dining room with log burner, as well as the small but 'perfectly formed' kitchen.

The staircase leads up to a small landing with the two double bedrooms leading off. Both bedrooms have the benefit of en-suite shower rooms, and stunning views over the bay towards Place Manor.

Thimble Cottage is currently used as a holiday let, and has historically been let very successfully with a good return year-on-year.

Recently renovated to a high standard, Thimble Cottage offers the ideal home for those looking for an easy to maintain, lock-up-and-leave property or a permanent home in this award winning popular waterside village where cottages of this nature are extremely sought after.
