Tanbridge House, Tanbridge Park, Horsham, West Sussex

Tanbridge House, Tanbridge Park, Horsham, West Sussex, RH12 1SH

Dating back to 1887, Tanbridge House was originally a large family home, then a girls' school before being converted into luxury apartments and houses in the mid 1990s. Situated within a few minutes walk of Horshams bustling town centre, this two bedroom mews type property makes a perfect "lock up and leave" type home, about a mile from the station, which offers direct routes to London and Gatwick. All local amenities are within very easy reach, including a wide range of shops, cafes, bars and restaurants, Sainsburys and Waitrose supermarkets and numerous doctors and dentists surgeries.

The compact accommodation is easy to maintain, with a dual aspect living / dining room and a high specification kitchen and bathroom on the ground floor. Upstairs, the principle bedroom is a generous double, with the second bedroom being a good single. There are two allocated parking spaces, one within the courtyard in front of the property and the other just around the corner at the entrance to the main building.

Bright and airy, this welcoming home is well suited to a professional couple or downsizer who appreciates having plenty of shopping and entertainment options close by, whilst enjoying the seclusion and privacy of a private, well maintained development.
