Living Room

This exceptional Lakeland two/three bedroomed stone cottage is full of character. The living room welcomes you in with the open fire set upon its slate hearth being a real focal point to the room. With window seat from where to admire the garden and countryside views beyond, and space to dine, all just perfect for gathering and relaxing with friends and family. There are quirky display alcoves, and a spacious under stair cupboard for additional storage.

The dual aspect kitchen beyond is fresh, bright and airy and also has space to dine, situated close to the electric Everhot range cooker (with induction hob) this is a cosy spot for meals or tackling paperwork, though the garden views may prove somewhat distracting! Having wall and base units with complementary work surfaces incorporating a stainless steel sink and a half with drainer and mixer tap. A useful deep window recess and additionally there is a deep pantry cupboard. Integrated Hoover appliances include an automatic washing machine and a dishwasher.

Upstairs is a landing with fabulous additional storage space and cupboards, and characterful display alcove recess. Access to the loft space here also leads to a further storage area. This roof space is boarded out and has a double layer of sheep's wool insulation and has potential for converting (subject to any necessary building consent).

The main bedroom is a spacious double having integrated wardrobes and a charming window seat with both garden and fell views. There is a shelved alcove as well as a recessed cupboard. The second bedroom is in use as a twin, again benefitting from a window seat almost forcing one to pause, relax and admire the views. A stone lintel has been left exposed here, making a beautiful feature. The smaller third bedroom could also be a home office for those lucky enough to work from home in such special surroundings.

The bathroom with its underfloor heating - a real treat for bare feet, is wonderfully light with its roof light which supplements the window letting light stream in. Having a three piece suite comprising panel bath with Mira shower over, wash hand basin set over a vanity style unit and WC. Additionally there is a heated ladder style towel rail and an airing cupboard (water tank newly installed in 2010).

Accessed from the landing is a WC cloakroom tucked away - perfect for when guests are staying.

Outside is a very well stocked garden with herb bed near the front door, and a sun trap of a terrace - where precious characterful blue slate flags from inside the cottage have been cleverly and thoughtfully laid. A case of history beneath your feet as you sit with a morning coffee, or perhaps a glass of something cool at the end of the day. Hiding beneath the privet hedge is an ancient flag wall, a local feature, now something of a rarity and to be treasured. The stone old washhouse (known as Toad Hall) has power/ light points and a WC and is ideal for storage of garden tools, alongside which there is a dedicated wood storage area (the Old Privy), and a lean to potting shed. The spacious shed attached to the house at the rear has an original door with framed area showing carvings of some historical interest - only recently discovered. The current owner parks at the top of the lane alongside the garden where there is space for 2 cars. The parking provision could be improved by cutting back vegetation and the Beech hedge.
