The addition of a wonderfully spacious extension has made this property a true gem, with many extras including upgraded electrics, LPG heating system (2019), woodburning stove and recent uPVC double glazing throughout. Set in the desirable village of Morichard Bishop, this property offers huge value for money. With gardens front and back leading onto open countryside, the peace and quiet of the location is a must view!

The front porch with plenty of storage/boot space leads with steps up to the main entrance. The spacious kitchen with light oak effect units has recently fitted worktops and tiles and has space for all the necessary white goods. There are patio doors out to the garden and a door leading through to the extended part of the house. The extension built in 2019 provides a downstairs WC and a spacious open plan lounge/diner with south facing picture window and patio doors to the rear garden. There is also another lounge on the ground floor with a Charnwood woodburning stove, south facing window and plenty of storage.

Upstairs the large master bedroom in the extension has an ensuite with tasteful tiles and large shower enclosure and a separate walk-in-wardrobe. There is a further double with views over the garden and a single bedroom with built-in bed to the front. Another double (currently utilised as a craft room) leads through to another single bedroom. The family bathroom is a modern white suite with an recently added electric shower over the bath.

The garden to the front has a gravelled area surrounded by a hedge and shrubs with useful space for bins. The pretty rear garden is fully enclosed, perfect for pets and has separated areas including, lawned area, decked area, pergola and includes a summer house and two further sheds, there is access to the garden both sides, including a shared alleyway between next doors property.
