GUIDE PRICE £249,950

Dating from the early part of the twentieth century, this detached house offers a surprising amount of space and retains a great deal of its original character. The property occupies an elevated position towards the eastern end of Wentworth Street and as such, enjoys easy access to all of Malton's many amenities.

The accommodation, which benefits from gas central heating and majority double glazing, is arranged over two floors and briefly comprises spacious entrance hall, living room and dining room, each with a fireplace, kitchen with walk-in pantry, first floor landing, three bedrooms and bathroom with white suite.

The property is constructed of brick under a pantile roof and enjoys gardens principally on two sides, consisting of a stone flagged terrace, lawn and shrub borders. Parking is available nearby on Wentworth Street.

Malton is a popular and well-served market town located approximately 18 miles north of York and has in recent years gained a reputation as Yorkshire's food capital. Named by The Sunday Times as one of the best places to live, the town enjoys excellent transport links; the railway station is a short walk away and has regular services to York from where London can be reached in less than 2 hours. A full range of amenities can be found within Malton, including a variety of eateries, independent and high street retailers, good schools and leisure facilities.
