This semi-detached three bedroom house offers well-maintained accommodation, a generous westerly rear garden and the added advantage of no onward chain, allowing for a quick move.

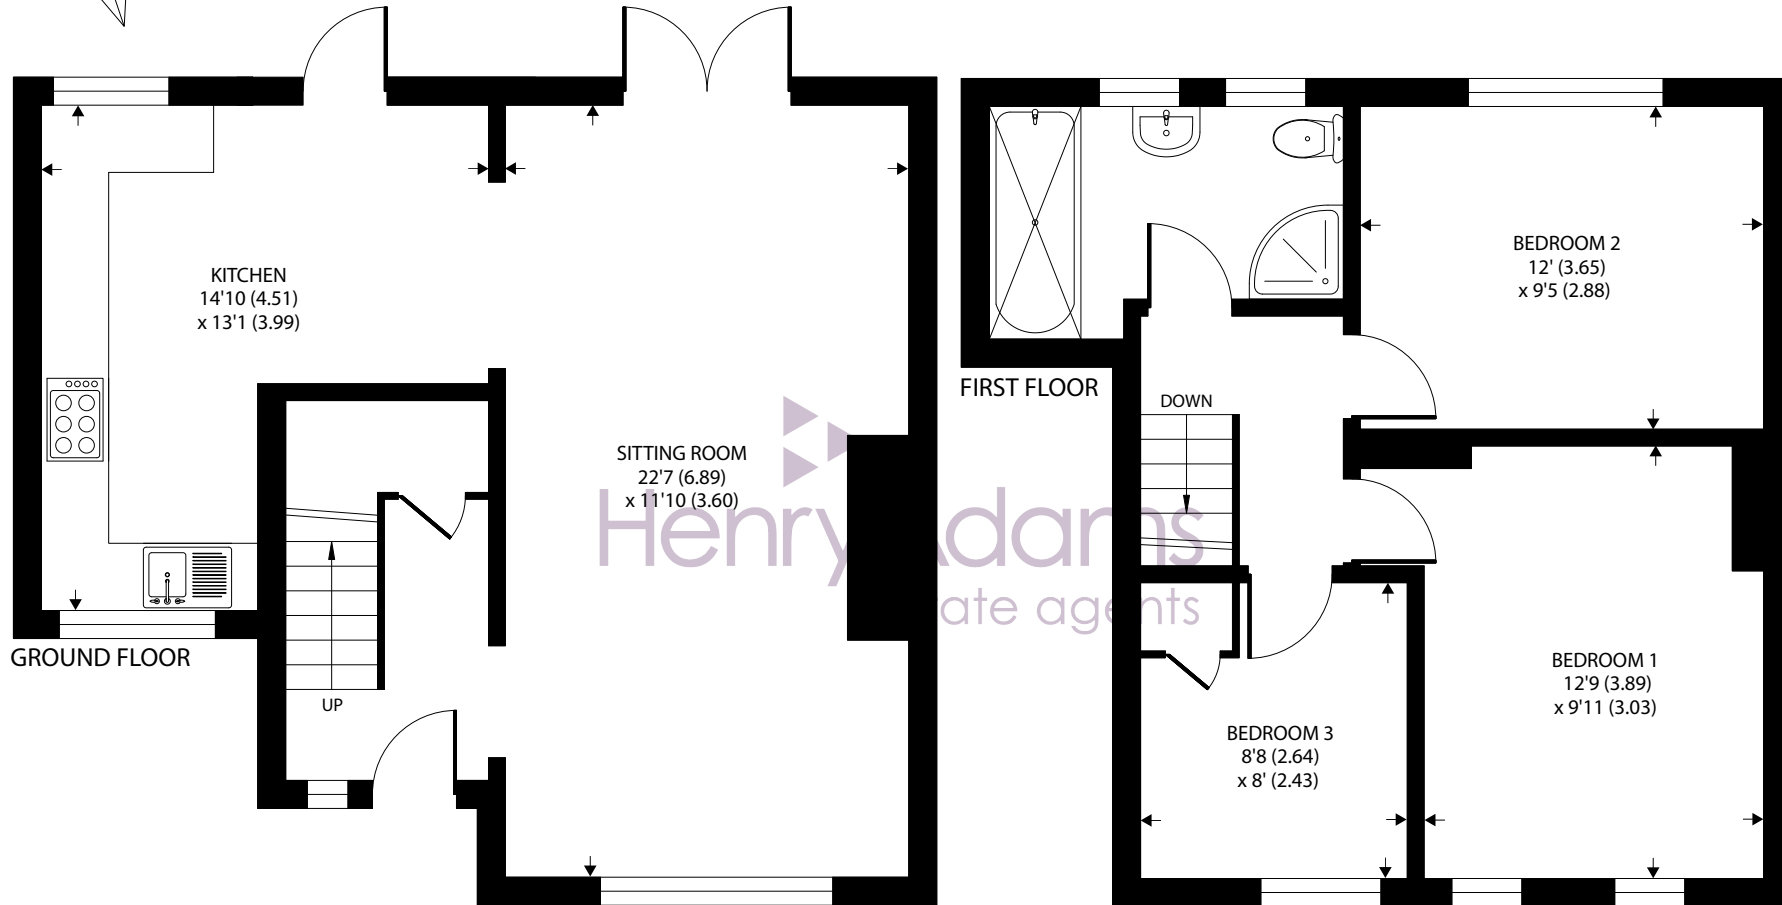

Upon entering, the accommodation comprises a spacious sitting room with a dual aspect, allowing ample natural light. The recent addition of a log burner provides an attractive focal point and creates a cosy atmosphere in the colder seasons. The sitting room seamlessly flows into the dining area and kitchen beyond. The kitchen features an integrated fridge, a separate freezer, as well as space for a dishwasher and a range-style cooker. Patio doors lead out from the dining area and kitchen to the sizeable garden. A cupboard off of the hall provides space and plumbing for a washing machine.

The first floor hosts two double bedrooms, a single bedroom, and a bathroom equipped with both a bath tub and a walk-in shower cubicle.

Externally, a driveway caters for off-road parking. The rear garden boasts a westerly aspect and is of an impressive size, predominantly laid to lawn with a patio area, shed, and well-established borders, offering a good level of privacy.
