LOCATION:

The subjects are situated on the northern side of Main Street a short distance to the west with the junction of Randolph Crescent within Brightons.

The village of Brightons lies astride the B805 road, approximately 6 miles to the east of Falkirk town centre, adjacent to the towns of Polmont and Lauriston, each of which lie to the north.

The village is predominantly residential in nature although providing adequate local retail and associated facilities, with more extensive provisions afforded within Falkirk itself, which forms the main administrative centre for the surrounding district.

Brighton's benefits from excellent road communication links, with junction 4 of the M9 lying only 2 miles to the northeast. In addition, the subject are situated in close proximity to Polmont station, which lies on the main Edinburgh to Glasgow rail route.

The property itself forms part of a small parade of similar units in a mixed residential and commercial location.

Property Details

DESCRIPTION:

The subjects comprise retail premises which are arranged over the ground and attic floors of an end terraced single storey and attic property. The original building is of stone construction with a pitched and slated roof and the building has been extended to the rear by means of a brick built and rendered rear extension which has a bituminous felt covered roof.

Located to the rear of the property is an enclosed area of garden ground.

The frontage has a recessed timber framed and glazed entrance door which is protected externally by double leaf timber storm doors and there is a timber framed display window which has a roller security shutter.

Internally the accommodation has been fitted out as a hairdressing salon and is well presented, providing 6 chair positions, 2 hair washing positions and reception/customer waiting area. To the rear is a staff room, toilet compartment and storage.

Completing the property is the attic level which provides a treatment room and there is also a separate storage room.
