Living Room

The front living room offers a bright, inviting space where natural light floods through a large bay window, framing a picturesque view of the tree-lined street.

Kitchen, dining and conservatory

The kitchen holds tremendous potential, being adjacent to both the dining room and a conservatory. This layout offers an exciting opportunity to combine these spaces into a spacious, open-plan area. B

The Bedrooms

The first floor features four double bedrooms, each offering space and comfort. The master bedroom stands out with its en-suite, complete with a shower and WC, whilst a basin is conveniently located within the room itself. The second bedroom also offers added privacy with its own shower cubicle, making it ideal for guests or family members. The third and fourth bedrooms are spacious, providing flexibility for various uses.

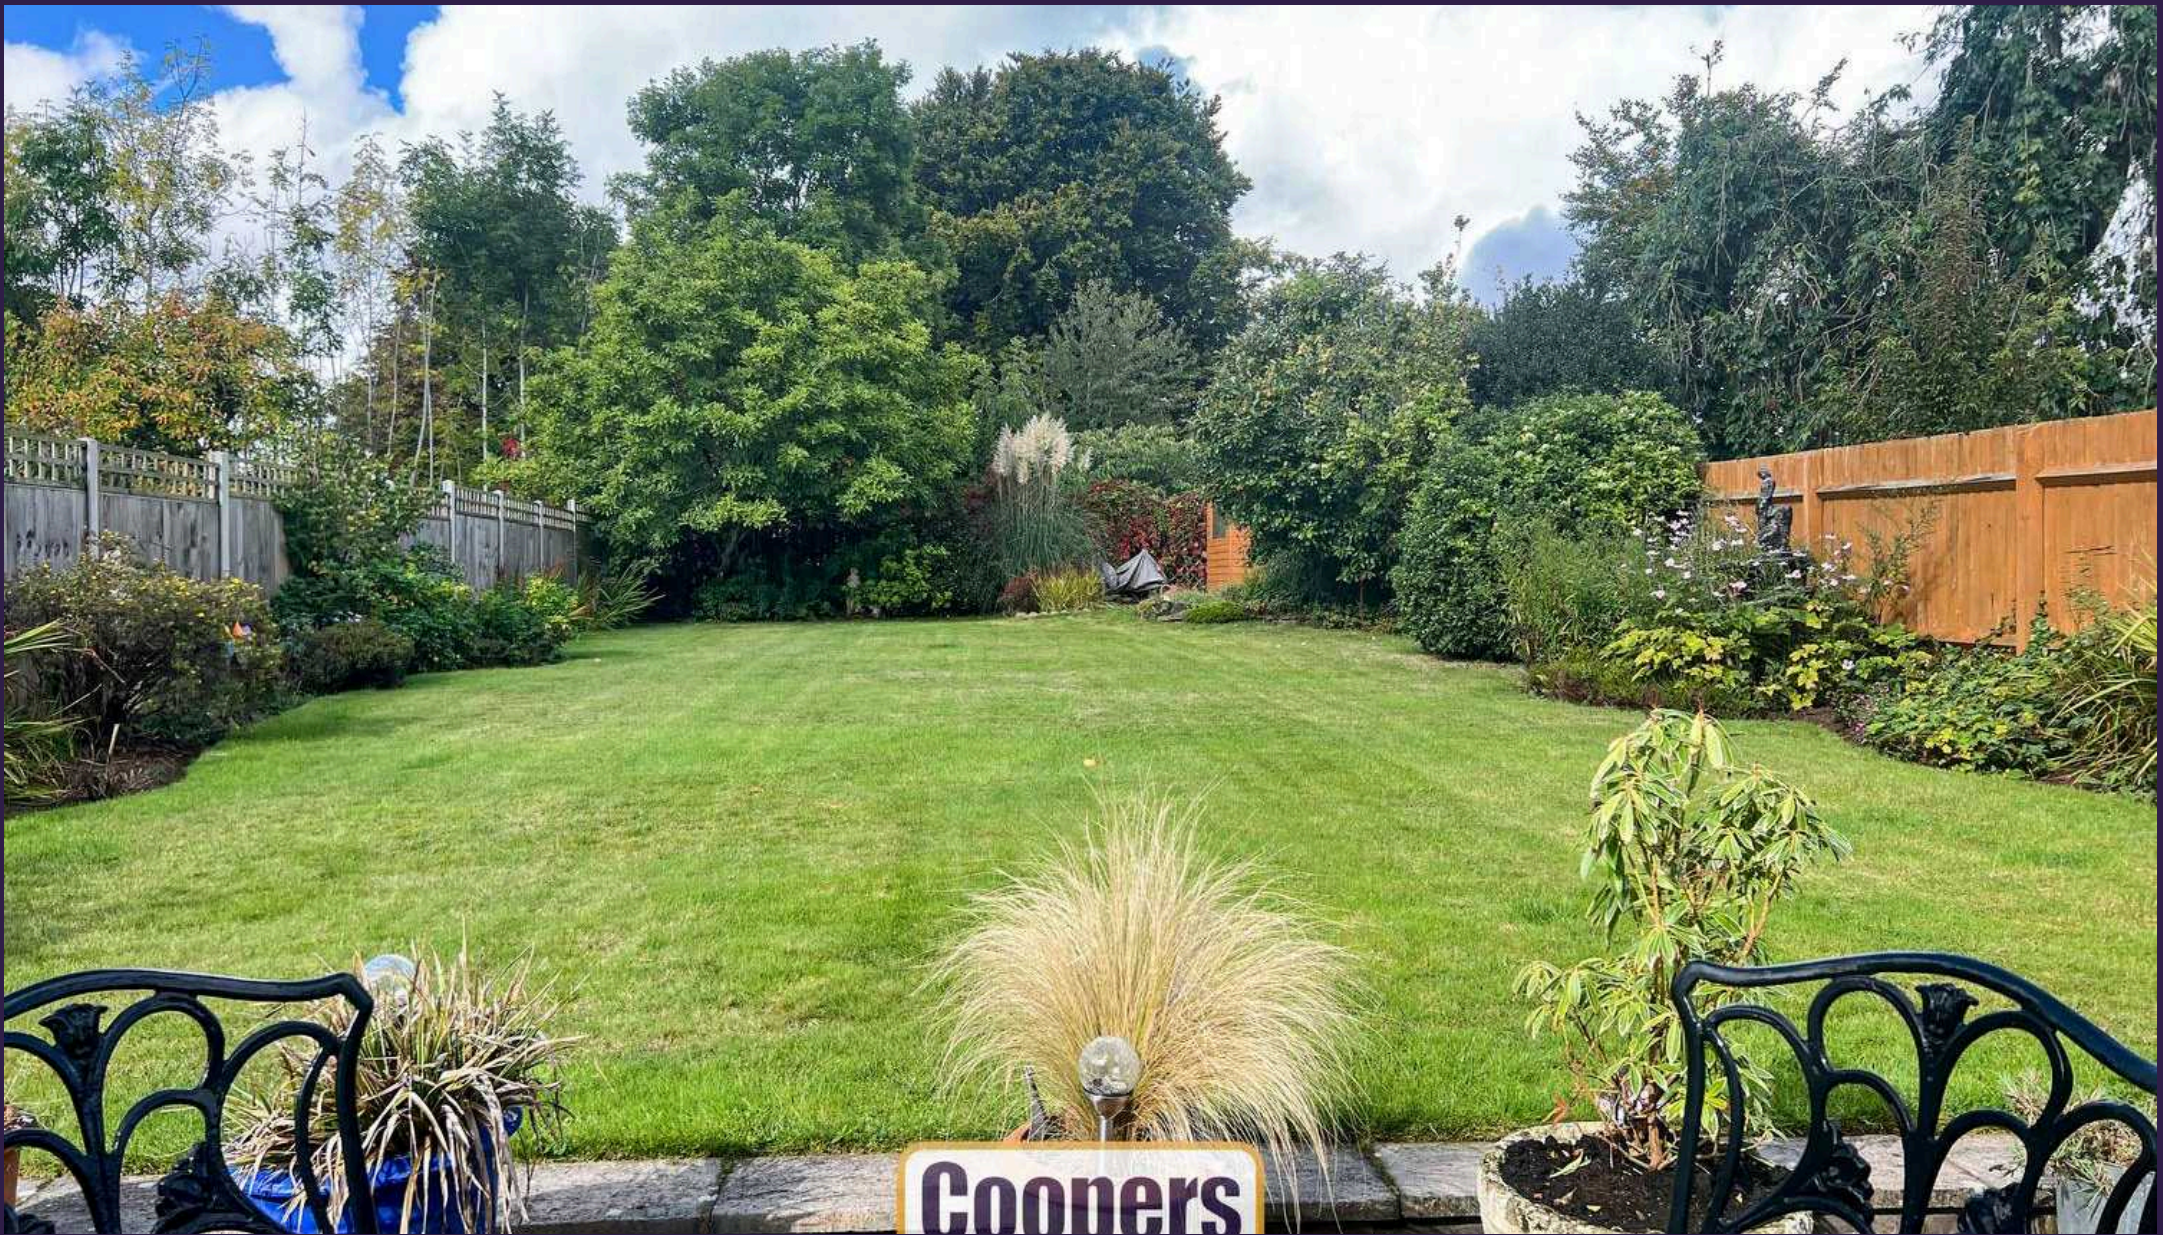

The Bathrooms

Downstairs Shower Room: Convenient and practical, perfect for quick refreshes or guest use. First-Floor Family Bathroom: Spacious and versatile, with both a separate bath and shower to accommodate different needs. Primary Bedroom En-Suite: A private en-suite with a shower, WC, and toilet. Bedroom with Shower Cubicle: One bedroom includes a shower cubicle, adding extra convenience for guests or family members.

Versatile Attic

Accessible via stairs from the first-floor landing, the loft offers two separate rooms that add valuable versatility to the home. Both rooms feature generous storage options, making it easy to keep the space organised and clutter-free. Scenic Views: Enjoy tranquil views over the garden and the park beyond from the loft's window, bringing natural light and a sense of calm to this unique area.
