Perfecting every last detail

We have thought of everything so you don't have to.

From the convenience of bedside USB chargers and light switches, fitted wardrobes in bedroom one to the contemporary oak hand rails, and balusters to the stairs, Bowland Rise provides the quality finish you expect from a Jones Home.

At Dolphinholme you will find modern tonal kitchens with premium branded integrated appliances and solid quartz worktops fitted as standard. Bathrooms include sanitaryware by Vitra, low profile shower trays, Aqualisa showers and a choice of luxury tiling from Porcelanosa.

And it's not just the interior of your home we are committed to getting right. We've given care and attention to the streetscene and landscaping to ensure Dolphinholme is a place you would be proud to call home.

The perfect location

The charming semi-rural village of Dolphinholme, sits on the banks of the River Wyre on the edge of the Forest of Bowland, a designated Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty (AONB).

Built with you in mind

There's always a friendly welcome in the Fleece Inn

A place to suit every lifestyle

Enjoy the comforts of modern living, with the great outdoors on your doorstep.

The village is a designated historic conservation area and is split into two parts – a higher village and a lower part, called Lower Dolphinholme. The village itself has a primary school, a village hall, a parish church (St Mark's C of E), a Methodist chapel, a pub (the Fleece Inn), a recreational ground, a tennis court and a bowling green. A Post Office visits the village hall on Thursday mornings from 10:00am to midday.

There is a village show that takes place on the second Saturday of September each year in the village hall. It features vegetables, flowers, cooking, photography and a children's section.

The nearest supermarket, hospital and extensive amenities are to be found in Lancaster, but in the village The Fleece Inn pub also serves as a local shop supplying locals and tourists with a good stock of basic, everyday goods.
