Property description

An opportunity arises to purchase a substantial semi - detached property within a convenient location in the picturesque town of Creetown. Within easy reach of all local amenities, this property has been well maintained and provides spacious accommodation over two levels. The property benefits from being sitting on a generous plot to allow for a spacious garden and off-road parking as well as having the local park within a short walking distance of the property. The property comprises of an open plan spacious lounge to the front and dining area to the rear with generous built in storage. With full UPVC double glazing and gas fired central heating, this property would make an ideal first-time purchase, and viewing is to be thoroughly recommended.

With the property being of traditional construction under a tile roof, the property is situated adjacent to other properties of varying style and set within its own generous area of well-maintained garden ground with side and rear access. There is an outlook to the front over other residences as well as woodland and local park providing a tranquil setting. The town of Creetown provides amenities including convenience store, butcher, primary school and bowling green. All major amenities including supermarkets, secondary schooling, hotels and healthcare are to be found in the market town of Newton Stewart some 5 miles distant. This is an area of natural beauty and there is access to wonderful countryside locally.

The surrounding area has also been noted for its sites of historical interest. The pretty coastal villages of the Isle of Whithorn and Garlieston are within easy reach and where there are further facilities for boating and sea fishing. The well-known Book Town of Wigtown is only 13 miles distant and a wider range of facilities, including larger supermarkets and secondary schools, can be found in the market town of Newton Stewart (5 miles) and Stranraer (30 miles).
