Area Information

Rickmansworth has plenty of countryside nearby for walks and cycling but is also close enough to London to offer residents the chance of the hustle and bustle of the big city. One of Rickmansworth's most popular destinations is the 41 hectares of Local Nature Reserve the Aquadrome, with Lakes, woodland, children's play area and the popular Café in the Park. There are plenty of leisure facilities within the area including an array of golf courses, health clubs and swimming pools.

There are multitude of local shops in Rickmansworth including smaller boutiques and larger High Street chains such as Marks & Spencer, WHSmiths, Boots and a large Waitrose. Restaurants such as Zaza's are available as well as gastro pub dining including the Feathers which will offer a more traditional menu. For further retail therapy, the Watford Intu shopping centre is 15 minutes by car.

There are many Ofsted Good and Outstanding primary, secondary and independent schools in the area. Rickmansworth School, St Joan of Arc and Royal Masonic are within walking distance, along with Arnett Hills JMI, Chorleywood Primary School in the local area making it a desirable area for families.
