19 Vale Road

Haywards Heath, Haywards Heath

Set in a quiet yet central location, this charming 2 bedroom, semi-detached bungalow offers a great opportunity for those seeking a property with potential for extension and improvement subject to necessary consents.

19 Vale Road is available to the market for the first time in almost three decades, presenting a rare chance to create a truly bespoke living space. The property, in need of modernisation, provides ample scope for personalisation to suit individual tastes and requirements. Those with a vision for expansion or renovation will find an exciting array of possibilities on offer here.

The space features two generously proportioned bedrooms, promising a peaceful retreat within a convenient locale. Additionally, the potential for a loft conversion further enhances the appeal of this home, providing an avenue for further bedrooms.

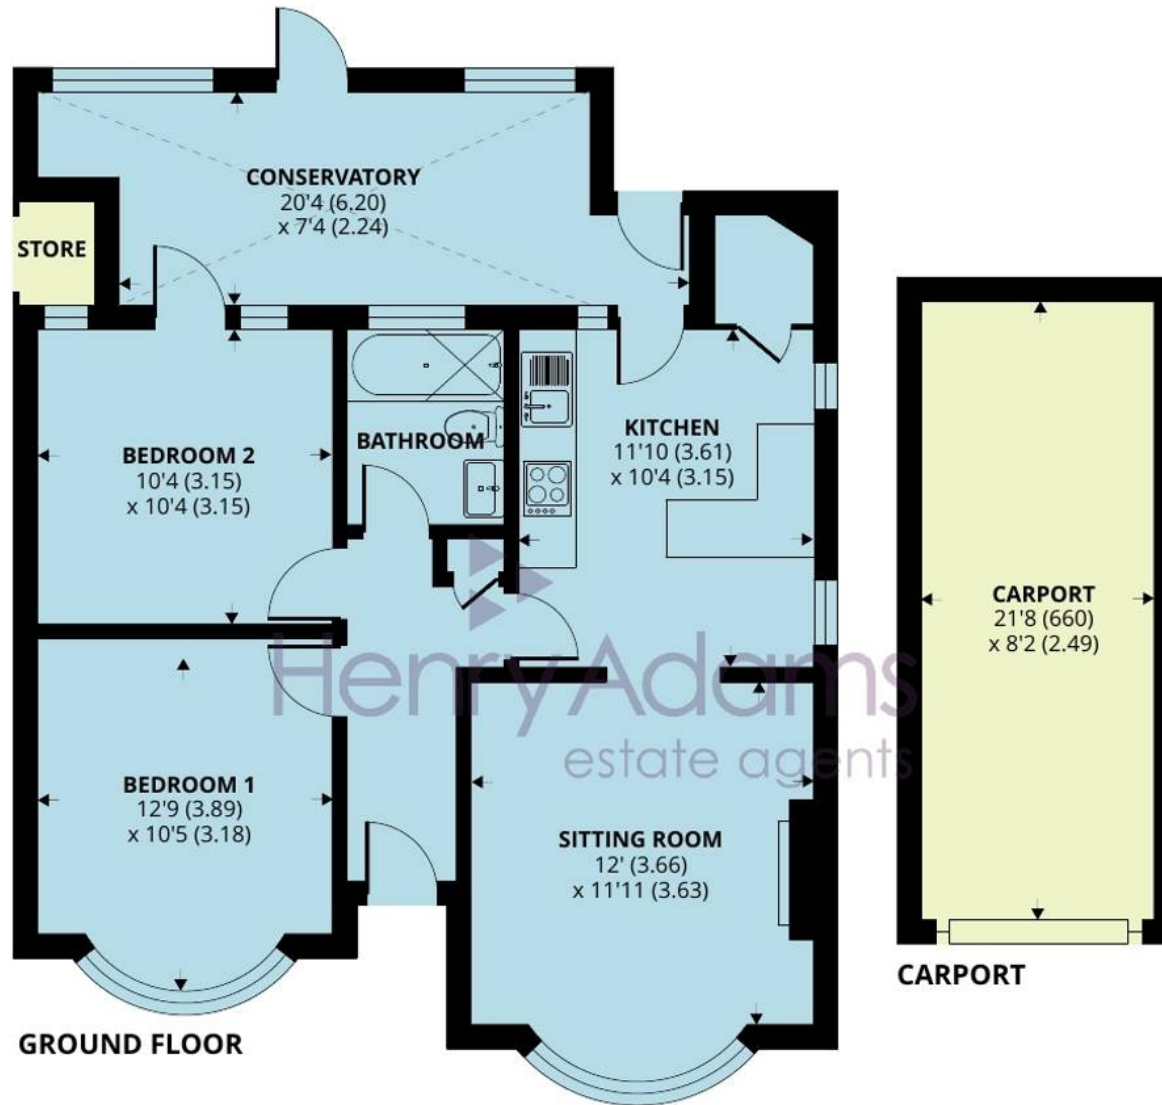

Situated just over a mile from Haywards Heath station, this property is well-connected for commuters and those seeking ease of access to surrounding areas. Its proximity to local schools and amenities adds to its desirability, ensuring convenience for families and individuals alike. Moreover, the option for further off-street parking enhances practicality for residents with vehicles.
