INTRODUCTION

The Old Smiddy is situated within beautiful rural setting, yet only a short drive from the popular town of Kirkcudbright. The name 'The Old Smiddy' comes from the original stone built smiddy located on the site, where only one wall still exists on the eastern side of the property.

The property is approached by its own gated driveway, which is neatly bound by dry stone dykes, where there is ample parking for several vehicles. The garden generous garden grounds offer a mix of net lawns, flowering borders, mature shrubs and in addition, a paved patio offers the perfect place for alfresco dining or family and social entertaining. Given the location of The Old Smiddy a plethora of native wildlife can be enjoyed on a daily basis along with countryside pursuits available straight from the doorstep.

The Old Smiddy is only a short drive from the pretty town of Kirkcudbright which is one of Scotland's most vibrant communities with events, exhibitions and activities taking place throughout the year. A lively fishing port, Kirkcudbright makes an ideal location for a weekend break or as a base to explore the beautiful south west of Scotland.

Surrounded by coasts and hills of outstanding natural beauty; ideal for cycling, gentle walking, challenging hiking or a lazy day at the beach. Events take place throughout the year with the spectacle of the tattoo and the traditional Riding of the Marches. There are Art and Crafts Trail with over 100 venues, a Country Fair and a Food Festival.

Established as a Royal Burgh in 1455, Kirkcudbright has always been supported by a busy fishing trade. Behind the harbour the streets have housed generations of creative artists, a tradition maintained today by a flourishing colony of painters and craftworkers. This has led to it being called "The Artists' Town". Other well-known features of the town are the pastel-coloured houses and wide streets, the wide selection of mainly family-owned shops. Both primary and secondary schooling are available within the town, with both being highly regarded.

Dumfries & Galloway is a varied and picturesque part of Southern Scotland, ranging from the moorland of the Southern Upland hills to the bays and sandy beaches of the Solway Coast. It is an historic and distinctly rural region where agriculture and tourism form the backbone of the local economy.

Given the diverse landscape and proximity to the Solway Coast the area offers unique walks, equestrian hacking, cycling, sailing and for the keen golfer, Dumfries & Galloway boasts no fewer than twenty-nine 18-hole courses. Equestrian activities are a feature of the county, with two active branches of the Pony Club of Great Britain.

Communications and arterial links are very good with the A75 in close proximity and the M6 at Gretna and M74 at Lockerbie. The international airports of Glasgow and Edinburgh, and the ferry terminal for Ireland at Cairnryan, are all within easy reach.
