Nestled on the tranquil Newells Lane in West Ashling, this charming four-bedroom detached house offers a perfect blend of space, privacy, and potential. As you approach the property, you are greeted by a welcoming porch that sets the tone for the spaciousness within. Upon entering, you step into a generous entrance hallway, providing access to the various rooms on the ground floor.

To your right, the hallway opens into a bright and spacious lounge, which seamlessly connects to the dining room through sliding doors. The dining room, with its open layout, offers an ideal space for entertaining, with direct access to the fitted kitchen at the far end. The kitchen, well-equipped and functional, has a door that conveniently leads back to the hallway. At the rear of the kitchen, a door opens into an impressive 25ft conservatory, which doubles as a utility room, offering ample space and versatility.

The ground floor also features a study, perfect for those who work from home, and a well-appointed W/C toilet, providing convenience for guests and residents alike. The kite winding staircase from the entrance hallway takes you to the first-floor landing, where the property's four bedrooms are situated.

The master bedroom is particularly noteworthy, being long and spacious, and benefiting from its own shower room en suite and a built-in wardrobe. This room also enjoys stunning panoramic views of the surrounding fields, adding to the sense of seclusion and tranquillity. At the opposite end of the landing, bedroom two impresses with its generous size and his-and-hers double built-in wardrobes, providing ample storage. Bedroom three, a comfortable double, is nestled between the master and second bedrooms and also features its own built-in wardrobe. Bedroom four, similar in size to the third, offers further storage with its built-in wardrobe. A small yet practical family bathroom serves these three bedrooms.

The property boasts a large loft space, offering excellent potential for conversion, subject to the necessary planning permissions, providing an opportunity for further expansion.

Outside, the property continues to impress with its expansive lawned and patio garden, beautifully maintained and surrounded by high walls for added privacy. The garden also features meticulously tended flower beds, creating a serene and picturesque setting. The panoramic views from the garden and the master bedroom offer a sense of openness and detachment from neighbouring properties.

An external shed houses the control panel for the newly installed high-specification septic tank, which is buried discreetly underground. At the front of the property, there is a driveway with ample space for multiple vehicles, as well as a two-story double garage, adding to the property's storage and practicality.

While the interior may require modernisation to suit personal tastes, the house is structurally sound and offers a solid foundation for creating a comfortable and inviting family home in a peaceful, rural setting.

The property is also within walking distance of Bosham train station, providing easy access to the surrounding areas and making commuting straightforward. For those who prefer to drive, the historic city of Chichester is just a short journey away, offering a wealth of shopping, dining, and cultural experiences. Alternatively, the coastal town of Emsworth is also a brief drive from the property, providing a delightful seaside escape with its charming harbour and vibrant community. This location offers the perfect balance of peaceful countryside living with the convenience of nearby amenities, making it an exceptional place to call home.
