19 The Downs

Wolverhampton, Wolverhampton

Two-bedroom detached home, built in the 1980s, offers generous off-road parking, a detached garage, and sits on a plot suitable for a substantial side extension, pending the necessary planning permissions. Nestled in a quiet corner of a cul-de-sac, the property enjoys a private setting.

Inside, the accommodation includes a living room, a fitted kitchen with a breakfast bar, and a door leading to a spacious conservatory. Upstairs, there are two bedrooms with built-in wardrobes and storage, along with a family bathroom featuring a white suite. The property is equipped with central heating and double glazing and is being sold with NO UPWARD CHAIN.

The Downs is a peaceful residential street with easy access to Stafford Road, a major route into Wolverhampton City Centre. The area also offers convenient access to the Science Park, local shops, and amenities, including an Aldi nearby. Regular bus routes and excellent connections to the wider West Midlands and motorway network add to its appeal.
