H2O
HOMES

Highcliff Court is located within historic parish of Rottingdean where the Kipling gardens and picturesque St Margaret's Church can be found amongst other equally notable buildings. Rottingdean offers good local shopping facilities as well as pubs and café's with excellent schools within easy reach of bustling Brighton approximately 5 miles away. There are good road links to both the A23 and A27.

Just imagine being able to wake up with sounds of the waves rolling onto the beach, well this 2 bedroom property provides just that due to its rare beachfront location! Top floor with a much desired South and Southwest facing aspect the apartment enjoys simply stunning sea and coastal views from all main rooms but with scope to improve to truly create a stunning home with direct beach access. Upon entry there is a full bathroom and separate cloakroom. With the cloakroom being immediately adjacent to the kitchen there is an opportunity to combine these rooms for a larger kitchen/breakfast room (subject to consent). The large sliding balcony doors frame the views perfectly in the living/dining room and gives access onto the private balcony. Both bedrooms boast large picture windows to equally soak up those wonderful beach and sea views and the apartment hugely benefits from an allocated parking space.
