BRIEF DESCRIPTION

Situated within a magnificent Grade I listed residence, No. 10 offers a substantial first-floor Apartment with stunning views of the garden quadrangle at the front and expansive gardens at the rear. A charming open wooden staircase, for the exclusive use of this apartment, leads to a spacious Entrance Hall. From here, a Long Hallway flows into the attractive Sitting Room, modern and stylish Kitchen/Dining Room, and a characterful Lounge, all filled with light and charm. The property features Three Double Bedrooms, including a Main Bedroom with fitted wardrobes and an En-Suite Bathroom, as well as an additional beautifully designed Bathroom.

The current owners have thoughtfully infused modern elegance into this character-filled home, which sits within approximately Two Acres of Communal Gardens. The property also includes Secondary Glazing, Garage, Parking, and several Guest Spaces for Visitors. Situated in a picturesque village, it is just a short drive from Telford and its extensive amenities.

LOCATION

The beauty of this property lies in the peaceful location, with close access to countryside walks. Being ideally placed for the local market towns of both Wellington and Newport, with their excellent schools and further/higher education facilities, and within easy reach of the larger retail facilities and amenities of Telford. Preston upon the Weald Moors is the ideal location for families and professionals alike. There is a local railway station at Wellington as well as the mainline railway station in Telford Town Centre and with the M54 being approximately 6.5 miles away (with its links to the M6 and Shrewsbury), the location is ideal for commuting.

PET POLICY: There is a two pet policy for Weald Moors Park. Therefore all owners can have a maximum of two pets.

HISTORY OF THE PROPERTY: Grade I Listed 'Preston Hospital' built in 1726. This Georgian 'hospital' was built by the Preston Trust Homes to be used as Alms Houses, from monies bequeathed by Lady Catherine Herbert on land which her brother, Lord Torrington, donated. These Alms Houses were originally built for retired ladies, who resided in apartments in the west side of the building, but later on, girls between the ages of ten and sixteen were welcomed to live in the east side, where they were schooled and taught domestic skills. The central Hall, joining the two main wings, is a most impressive part of the building and was originally intended as a school room and chapel. In the early 2000's, Shropshire Homes sympathetically developed this estate, transforming the main Alms House quadrangle into four luxury houses and six apartments. additional parking space to the north east of the development). As well as this conversion, there are nine further buildings on the estate,
