Description: Nestled in the heart of Bowness On Windermere yet in a quiet location, Baddeley Cottage is a traditional Lakeland stone and slate built property that exudes charm and has been lovingly maintained over the years by the current owners. This delightful property offers a perfect blend of traditional features and modern comforts. This 3 bedroomed property benefits from having breath taking panoramic views of Lake Windermere and Lakeland fells that a photo struggles to capture.

Location: Baddeley Cottage is situated within the popular area of Ferney Green on the fringe of Bowness on Windermere village. From Bowness proceed towards the Newby Bridge on the A592 passing the promenade and steamer piers, turning left after the Lakes Hotel sign into Ferney Green. Proceed up the hill and Baddeley Cottage can be found on the right slightly elevated enjoying a fantastic outlook.

Property Overview: As you step through the inviting front door, you are greeted by a spacious hallway with handy under stairs storage cupboard and with downstairs shower room comprising of WC, washbasin and shower, the hallway follows into a welcoming open plan living/dining room/conservatory. This room is a true highlight having views of Lake Windermere and the Lakeland fells, featuring a coal effect gas fire set on a slate hearth and with wooden lintel above. This area is able to be divided via a curtain and enables part of the living area to be used as extra bedroom accommodation.

Adjoining the living room is the conservatory constructed sympathetically with the existing house, which is a bright and airy space and has panoramic views of Lake Windermere and the fells and patio doors which lead out onto a paved seating area which gives a sense of "flying" over Bowness Bay.

The kitchen is by Wren and boasts plenty of wall and base units which provide ample storage and has appliances of integrated fridge and freezer, integrated slimline dishwasher, built-in Stoves electric oven and built in Neff gas hob with extractor fan over, which cater to all your culinary needs. On this floor is also a Utility Room plumbed for washing machine and having space for a dryer and which houses the Ideal gas boiler.

On the first floor are 3 double sized bedrooms with Bedroom 1 having large wall to wall wardrobes & bedroom 2 which has an en-suite of WC, pedestal washbasin, bath and separate Triton shower. Bedroom 3 is a twin bedroom with its own washbasin unit facilities. Both bedrooms 1 & 2 have the same fantastic views of Lake Windermere. Also on this floor is a further shower room comprising of WC, inset washbasin and vanity unit and Triton shower. On the landing there is access to a balcony, again having fantastic views to Lake Windermere and a built in cupboard housing the hot water cylinder, a loft ladder give access to a loft space which has been carpeted and is handy for storage.

Outside to the front of the property you will find parking for several cars and various shrubs and borders and to the rear is a tiered garden area with various shrubs, plants and trees and a patio seating area ideal for dining out on in those Summer months whilst taking in the breathtaking views. To the side of a house is a shed.

For a little history associated with the property, Baddeley Mount was originally a detached dwelling built in 1929 by Millicent Baddeley and subsequently converted into two dwellings in 1962. The original name came from the widow of (Millicent) MJB Baddeley (1843-1906) who was famous for writing walking guide books called the "Thorough Guide Series" and locally for writing "The English Lake District" first published in 1880. Although obviously never occupied by Mr Baddeley as he had passed away, it was occupied by his widow for many years and has links to Baddeley Clock on the junction of Lake Road and New Road in Windermere which was built in 1907 as a memorial to Mountford John Byrole Baddeley.

Baddeley Cottage offers a unique opportunity to own a house in a quiet location, yet close to amenities and in the heart of the Lake District. Don't miss your chance to make Baddeley Cottage your own.

The owners are prepared to include the furniture, fixtures and fitting under separate negotiation.
