20 High Street, Brighouse, HD6 1DE

£235,000

If you are looking for the ideal family home, situated on a well-regarded and highly sought-after residential location, close to Brighouse town centre, this will certainly be of special interest. This four bedroomed, terraced, property is offered with the added advantage of NO CHAIN and is a real TARDIS; offering a surprising amount of space that the frontage does not fully show. The property benefits from a charming front patio garden with border wall and artificial lawn that certainly enhances the kerb appeal of the overall property. To the rear is a private and enclosed garden that offers the ideal place to sit out due to its patio and artificial lawned areas. The property benefits from on street permit parking to the front elevation.

Internally the property is offered in a good condition throughout, with modern styles and decor, offering the opportunity for a prospective buyer to move in with little to no work required. With its warm and welcoming living room, spacious and highly functional dining kitchen, four bedrooms over two floors (three offering ample space for a double bed), house bathroom and a large, dry cellar. From the moment you step inside you will certainly notice the special nature the property has to offer.
