"We've lived here for almost 30 years, and now a lifestyle move to Devon is calling us. Over the years, we've transformed this home, extending it as our family has grown, and it's been perfect for our kids as they grew up. Finding a house with a good-sized garden is rare these days, and having that space for the kids to play and for the family to unwind has been so important to us. One of my favourite parts of the house is the open plan reception room, especially during the winter months and at Christmas - it's incredibly cosy! Having countryside walks just on our doorstep has been wonderful, yet it's also been so convenient for accessing to the station and the kids to walking to the local schools."
