COUNTRY

The property is situated in the Conservation Area of the Ancient Town and Cinque Port of Rye, renowned for its historical associations, medieval fortifications and fine period architecture. As well as its charm and history, the town has a comprehensive range of shopping facilities and an active local community, with the arts being strongly represented; Rye Arts Festival and Rye International Jazz Festival are held annually. From the Town there are local train services to Eastbourne and to Ashford with high speed connections to St. Pancras London in 37 minutes (1 hr 13 mins London to Rye) and from there to the Continent. Sporting facilities in the area include golf at Rye, Cooden and Hastings, sailing on the south coast and many fine countryside and coastal walks.

Forming an inner terrace Edwardian townhouse presenting brick external elevations set with double glazed windows beneath a pitched tiled roof. The well presented accommodation is arranged over three levels, as shown on the floor plan.

A geometric tiled path leads to an open entrance porch with a part glazed front door opening into hallway with stairs off to the first floor. The well-proportioned open plan living room and dining room has a bay window to the front, under stairs cupboard and a glazed door to the kitchen.

The kitchen area, which has windows to the rear and side, is fitted with a range of base and wall mounted cabinets incorporating a composite sink, 4 burner gas hob with oven under and extractor fan over, integrated dishwasher, space and plumbing for washing machine, fridge and freezer. The breakfast/garden room has a polycarbonate roof and double doors opening to the rear garden.

The first floor landing has doors off to bedrooms 2 and 3, the family bath/shower room and stairs to the second floor.

Bedroom 2 has a bay window to the front. Bedroom 3 overlooks the rear. The family bath/shower room has modern fittings comprising a panelled bath, large shower enclosure, a wash hand basin and a close coupled wc.

On the second floor, bedroom 1 has a dormer window to the front and rear, together with an en-suite cloakroom with a w.c and wash basin.

Outside: To the front of the property is a small area of open plan garden. The fence enclosed rear garden is paved with raised beds with hydrangeas, clematis and roses. A gate gives access to a pedestrian right of way running along the rear of the terrace and leading onto Rope Walk.
