Description

A truly unique office building that was constructed in 2001 on the site of a former cinema known as the Coronation Picture House. When constructed it was designed to replicate the former cinema entrance & was then occupied for a period by the architect who designed it. The ground floor comprises an open plan space with a kitchen to the rear, whilst a floating staircase then leads the way to another open plan workspace at 1st floor level where WC & shower room are also located. In addition other features include security shutters on the front of the building. The space is currently being refurbished ready for a new occupier.

Location

The property is situated on the Northern side of North Road towards the eastern end close to its Junction with Marlborough Place & The Steine Gardens. Situated in within the popular North Laine Area, the property is in a fantastic location with an array of attractions & things to do. Nearby occupiers include Tutto, Bills, Chilli Pickle, Pure Gym, La Choza & Pizza Express, whilst The Seafront & Brighton Station are also only a short walk away.

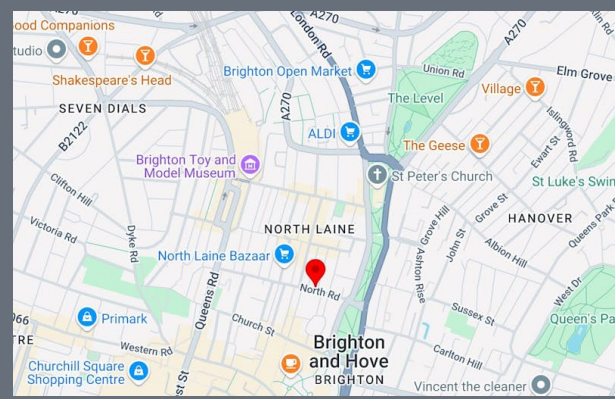

Accommodation

The accommodation comprises the following areas:
