Four bedroomed detached family home | Highly favoured position on the Western side of Abergavenny | Close proximity to town centre, high street, shops & schools
Walking distance to Belgrave Park with countryside walks to the Sugar Loaf easily accessible | Pedestrian route to Nevill Hall hospital close-by
Situated on the periphery of the Bannau Brycheiniog – Brecon Beacons - National Park
Two reception rooms with super views of the Blorengge to the front | Fitted kitchen with integrated appliances & separate utility room
Two bathrooms including an en-suite shower room to the principal bedroom | Integral garage and driveway | No forward chain

Situated on the periphery of the Bannau Brycheiniog – Brecon Beacons – National Park and affording a simply stunning outlook across the beautiful Vale of Usk towards the Blorengge and further afield over the valley towards Crickhowell, this well-appointed four bedroomed family home is located on the highly desirable Western side of Abergavenny, favoured by residents and buyers alike due to the superb views and close proximity of country walks including one of the area's most famous peaks, Sugar Loaf mountain with the Sugar Loaf Vineyards also close-by. This area of Abergavenny is feted for its ease of access to highly favoured schools including Cantref Primary School, Belgrave Park and the popular local public house and restaurant, The Lamb and Flag, which serves to make this an undeniably enviable position in the town.

Entered through a spacious hallway, this family home is configured with families in mind with double doors connecting the two reception rooms and a large window to the front for full exposure and maximum enjoyment of the view. The modern kitchen is fitted with Shaker style units and has integrated appliances and usefully a breakfast peninsula for quick breakfasts and casual lunches. Important for family buyers, there is a separate utility room, a pedestrian door into the integral garage plus a ground floor cloakroom too.

Upstairs, the principal bedroom has an en-suite shower room with both this bedroom and the second bedroom enjoying splendid, elevated views of the Blorengge. There are two further bedrooms all of which are served by a family bathroom.

Outside the garden is predominantly paved for ease of maintenance. Parking is available on the driveway. For buyers seeking a chain free purchase, this family home is being offered to the market with no forward chain making it an ideal buy for a swift sale.

SITUATION | The town centre of Abergavenny offers comprehensive leisure and shopping amenities including individual boutique style shops, eateries and restaurants, grocery and newsagent stores, supermarkets, and a plethora of well-known high street shops. The town is particularly well served by schools for all ages at both primary and secondary level.

The area is internationally favoured as a foodie haven as well as an ideal base for professional and amateur leisure pursuits. There are many sports clubs and activities in the area including rugby, football, tennis, bowls and swimming and of course, cycling at both an amateur and a professional level can be found close-by.

For those seeking long walks, there are pathways leading to the River Usk and the Brecon to Monmouthshire Canal as well as the summit of Blorengge Mountain from which colourful hang gliders may be observed, plus many of the other mountains which surround this historic town.

Abergavenny also hosts a market several times a week. The town has its own cinema and leisure centre as well as several eateries for evening entertainment. Abergavenny railway station is very accessible whilst road links at the Hardwick roundabout give easy access to the motorway and "A" routes to Cwmbran, Cardiff, and Merthyr Tydfil and further afield to the M4 and the Midlands.
