Description

This three bedroom semi-detached cottage is believed to date back to the 18th century and is set in generous size, well kept gardens in approximately ¼ of an acre with the additional benefit of a large parking area offering off-road parking for up to four vehicles.

This property boasts advanced insulation and energy-efficient heating systems, ensuring low heating costs and a comfortable environment all year-round.

The property itself benefits from modern comforts such as ground source heat pump and handmade double glazed windows. Much of the original character and charm has been retained with a wealth of period features which include beamed ceilings and flagstone flooring to the ground floor etc.

- Semi-Detached Cottage
- Three Bedrooms
- Popular Village Location
- Character Features
- Ample Off-Road Parking
- Set In 1/4 Acre

Internally, a front door leads into entrance hall with doors to all principle ground floor reception rooms and a staircase to the first floor. A sitting room is found at the front of the property with an open working fireplace. On the opposite side of the property, a separate dining room with wood burning stove offers access through to a fitted kitchen. The kitchen is fitted with a range of base units, work surfaces and an integrated Belfast sink. There is space for a range oven in the recess of the original inglenook fireplace with extractor fan above. A stable door leads through to an inner hallway with space and plumbing for a washing machine and door to a wet room and plant room.

From the hallway, a staircase leads to the first floor landing. There are three bedrooms as well as a refitted family bathroom comprising of roll top bath, wash hand basin, wc and shower. Externally, to the side of the property is a generous size area offering off-road parking for three or four family vehicles. The main garden is laid to lawn with a variety of fruit trees, hedges and planted borders as well as a timber shed.

Code of Practice for Residential Estate Agents: Effective from 1 August 2011:

'8. Financial Evaluation 8a At the time that an offer has been made and is being considered by the seller, you must take reasonable steps to find out from the prospective buyer the source and availability of his funds for buying the property and pass this information to the seller. Such information will include whether the prospective buyer needs to sell a property, requires a mortgage, claims to be a cash buyer or any combination of these. Such relevant information that is available should be included in the Memorandum of Sale having regard to the provisions of the Data Protection Act. 8b These reasonable steps must continue after acceptance of the offer until exchange of contracts (in Scotland, conclusion of missives) and must include regular monitoring of the prospective buyer's progress in achieving the funds required, and reporting such progress to the seller.

The agent has not tested any apparatus, equipment, fixtures and fittings or services and so cannot verify that they are in working order or fit for their purpose. A Buyer is advised to obtain verification from their solicitor or surveyor. References to the Tenure of the Property are based on information supplied by the Seller. The agent has not had sight of the title documents. A Buyer is advised to obtain verification from their Solicitor.
