Nestled in the rolling hills between Chawleigh & Lapford, this character barn conversion is in a small group of homes that enjoy stunning views over the Devon countryside. The property has been fully and tastefully upgraded by the currently owners adding in the last few years a new kitchen, uPVC double glazing, new bathrooms, flooring & woodburner.

The kitchen was replaced in 2022 with shaker style units, integrated dishwasher, fridge & freezer along with a quooker hot water tap. The good sized island has power and storage underneath, a door leads to the utility area which has space for a washer/dryer and sink, there is access to the garden from here and a downstairs WC. The conservatory/sun room has plenty of room for a table and sofa and is a place to sit, relax and enjoy the beautiful garden and wonderful views. The lounge has a woodburner & double doors leading outside. This room is a lovely social area with a warm comfortable feel.

Upstairs the master bedroom has the full benefit of the views along with a fitted wardrobe and ensuite shower room. The family bathroom has a white suite bath with shower over and has recently been tastefully re-fitted. The 2nd bedroom also enjoys the views and has a fitted wardrobe. The 3rd bedroom is a single which could also be utilised as a study or playroom.

The central heating is oil fired and a new boiler and radiators have been fitted in the last couple of years, the 16 solar panels on the barn provide a good return. The drainage is provided by a shared private treatment plant.

Outside to the front is a patio area perfect for outdoor dining, a lovely lawned area with flower, tree and shrub borders with the bottom section being left open to really enjoy the views over the countryside. There is a summer house at the end of the lawn which gives a perfect place to relax and enjoy those views. A variety of outbuildings are to the side including log store, garden shed and bin store, this area has power and lighting. The property is accessed by a shared lane which leads up to a double open fronted barn for parking with a good sized workshop behind. There is power and lighting in here too. A further lawned area is on the north side of the property with shrub and tree borders.

Please see the floorplan for room sizes.

CHAWLEIGH is a village set back from the A377, approximately halfway between the City of Exeter and Barnstaple in North Devon. Less than an hour's drive from each. It stands on high ground, beyond the Little Dart and Taw Rivers. It features a historic church, fashioned from stone in the early English style, with an embattled tower containing six bells. The village has two traditional inns and a post office/ shop. Eggesford station is only 2.5 miles away, where trains run north and south overlooked by sheer wooded valleys, a prominent feature of the area.

DIRECTIONS : DIRECTIONS: From the A377 take the Lapford turning & proceed on this road all the way up through the village, once leaving the village continue on for 1.5 miles towards Chawleigh & the driveway to Restharrow will be found on your left, marked by a Helmores Board.
