Your Home Zone

Zone belongs to the new Oval Village development. It's a vibrant and modern community that offers beautiful new homes alongside offices, retail and leisure facilities. As a resident, you'll benefit from new amenities such as a café, community centre and a brand-new supermarket.

Peabody is proud to offer 82 new Shared Ownership homes as part of Phase 3 at Zone. These desirable apartments not only give you the opportunity to live in the heart of London, but also put over 1,000 shops and 300 restaurants on your doorstep, along with many attractive green spaces, excellent schools and universities.

Your Village Zone

Oval Village is a tranquil oasis nestled among London's iconic buildings, giving you the perfect surroundings in which to relax or socialise.

At the heart of Zone are attractive green spaces, designed by award-winning 'landscape atelier', Murdoch Wickham. This unique landscape has a central piazza that features remnants of the Oval's old gas holders and a luxurious, illuminated waterfall, complemented by lattice screens planted with climbing roses.

A brand-new working hub called Oval Works opens in 2025 and will offer 100,000 square feet of commercial space. It will also provide flexi-working facilities for a modern, work-life balance and will be home to a café and community centre for after-work activities*.

Your History Zone

The Oval area of Kennington gets its name from an oval-shaped street layout from the 1790s, which was never completely built.

Its connection with cricket dates back to 1844, when the Montpelier Cricket Club leased ten acres of land. Soon afterwards, Surrey County Cricket Club was formed. The Oval cricket ground opened in 1845 and was the first English venue to host international Test cricket in 1880.

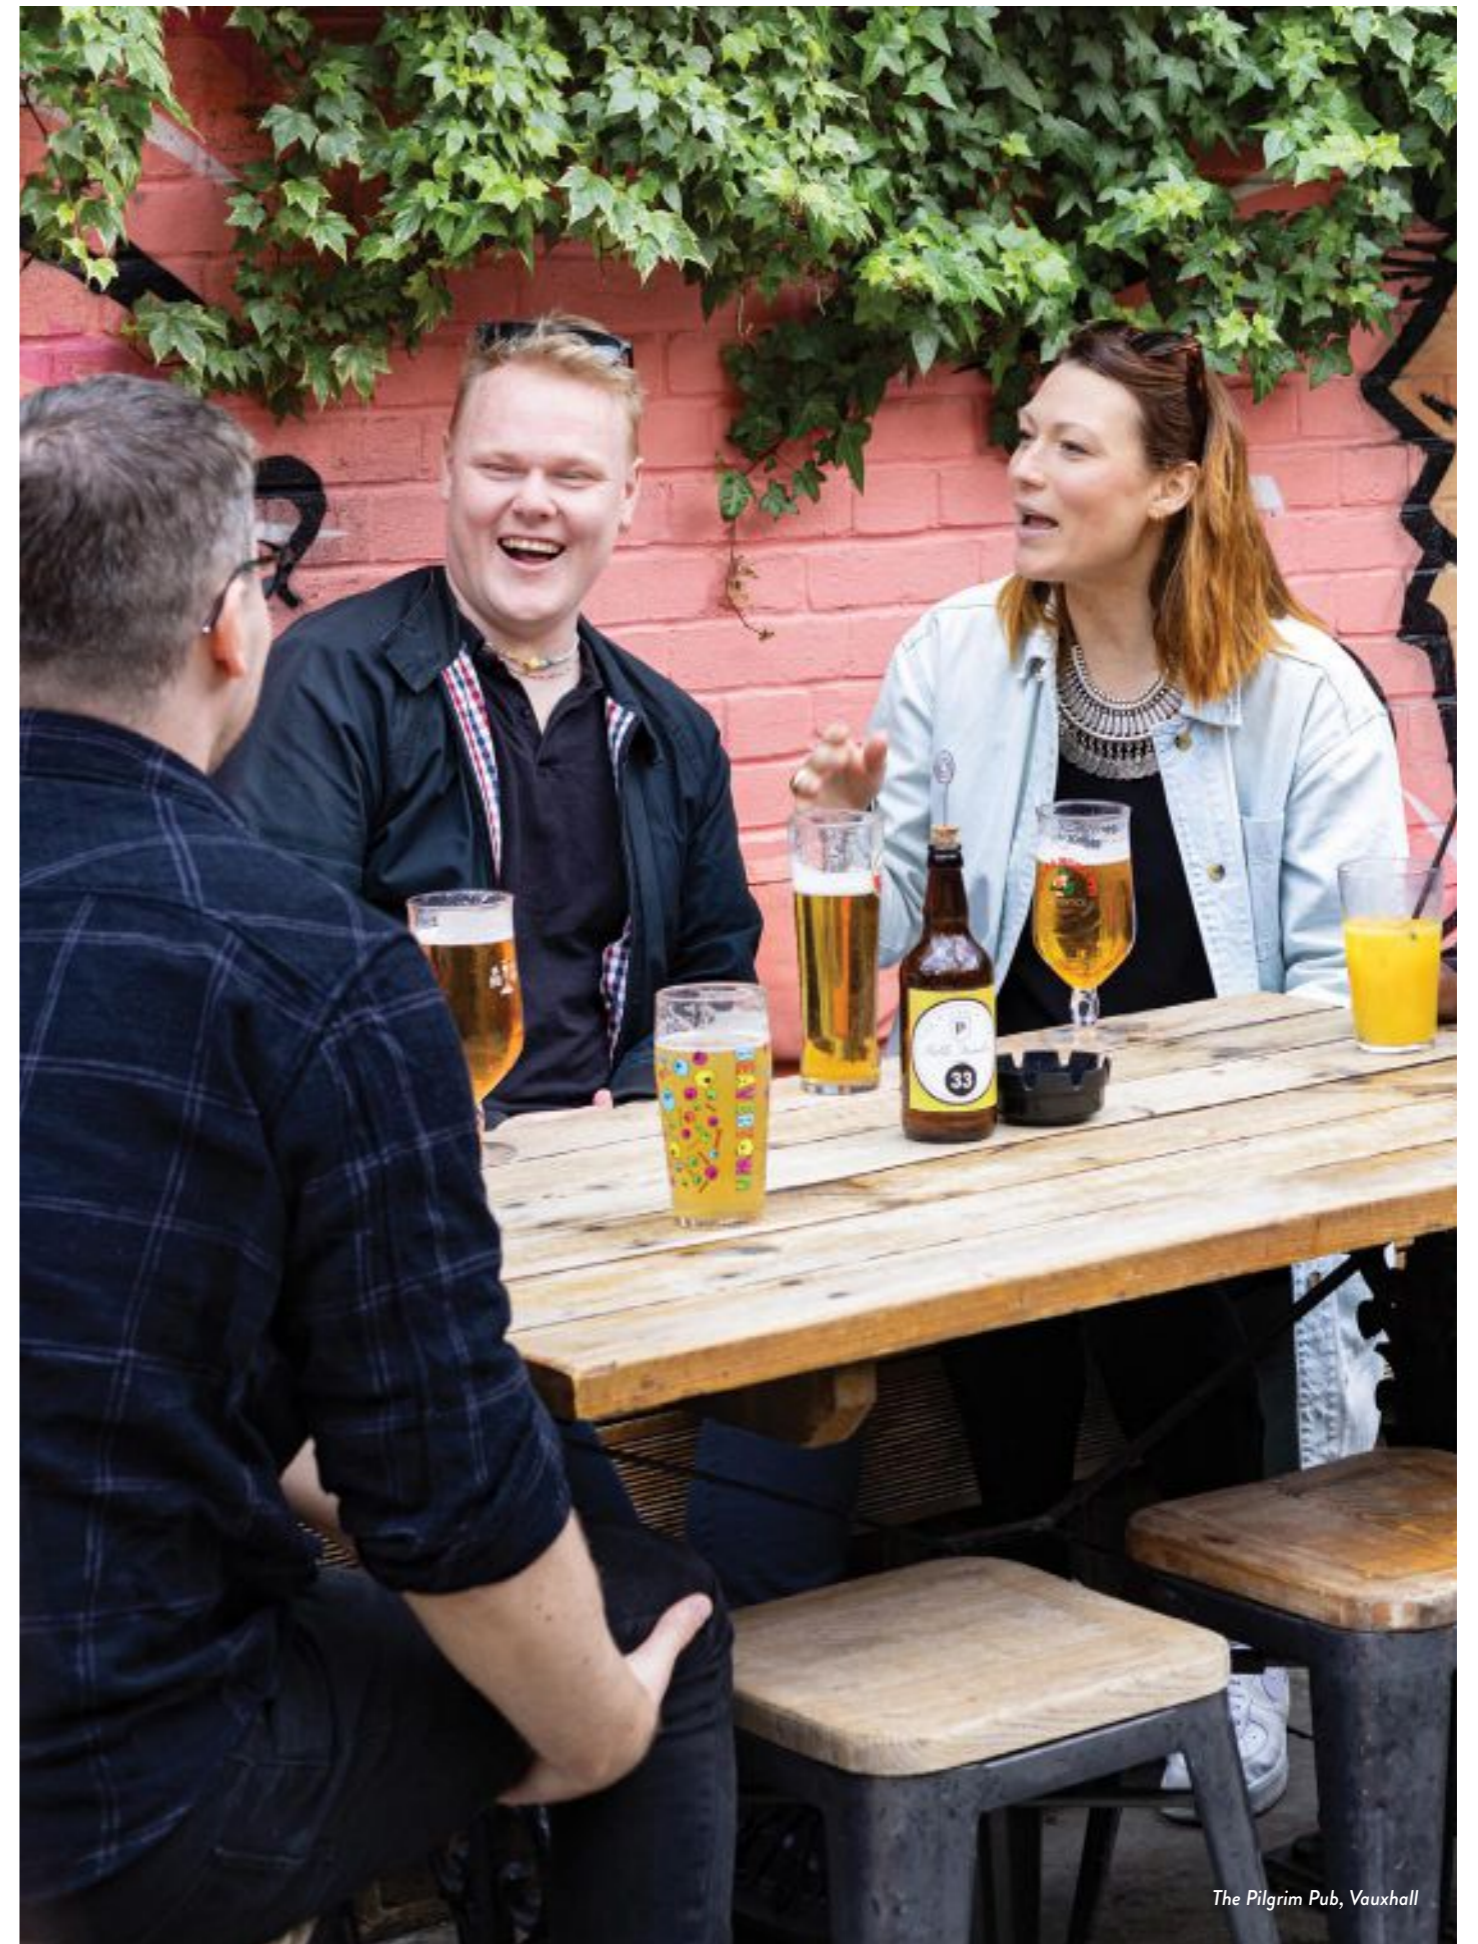

The famous Oval gasholders date back to 1847. Between that date and 1879, five of these vast gasometers were installed on the site – each one a magnificent feat of Victorian engineering. The largest, Gasholder No. 1, was the world's largest when built between 1877-79 and it is now a Grade II listed structure.

Your Social Zone

A vibrant social life awaits you

Living in Zone 1 offers you an unbeatable social life. You'll be a stone's throw from hundreds of restaurants, lots of bars, pubs and plenty of comedy venues. You'll also be able to check out a huge variety of excellent cafés, brasseries, bakehouses and street-food pop ups – it won't be long before you've got a long list of favourites.

The Pilgrim Pub, Vauxhall

At Zone, you'll be near a dazzling array of pubs, clubs, cafés and restaurants. These are some of our favourites, but you'll find so many more to visit and explore.

If you enjoy relaxing in cafés, then you have lots of places to discover. At the Kennington Park Café you can get freshly made cinnamon rolls, prepared in full view of customers. Tea House Theatre is a tea house that transforms into a theatre at night, while Pharmacy 2 at the Newport Street Gallery does great tea and cakes in surroundings designed by Damien Hirst.

Last but not least, Zone at Oval Village is moments away from the famous Beefeater Gin Distillery. Offering distillery tours and regular gin tastings, it also has a fascinating visitor centre with exhibits on the history of gin.

Oval has a buzzing food culture. Bokit'la is a hugely popular kiosk specialising in French-Caribbean street food. 24 The Oval is an atmospheric bistro specialising in what it calls 'old-fashioned modern British cooking'. SW9 Restaurant is the place to go for sushi and hot noodle dishes, while Jihwaja is an easy-going eatery offering delicious Korean favourites.

Zone is also near some seriously good pubs and bars. We particularly like The Pilgrim with its great selection of beers and spirits, delicious tapas and popular garden. The Alchemist Embassy Gardens is an ambient cocktail bar and restaurant, while The Cock Tavern is a popular gay bar with an eclectic Georgian Tiki vibe.

Your Laughter Zone

Experience some of the best comedy out there

Zone is right on the doorstep of some of London's best comedy hotspots. Always Be Comedy at the Tommyfield in Kennington arguably offers the greatest comedy nights in the country, featuring talent such as Joe Lycett, Katherine Ryan, Dara O'Briain, Sara Pascoe, James Acaster and dozens of other household names. Be sure to book early as most shows at this small, intimate venue sell out in advance.

Vauxhall Comedy Club also stages live comedy every single day and is the place to go to discover some of the best upcoming talent. Finally, if you've ever thought of giving stand-up a go, head to the Cavendish Arms – new performers are welcome to perform 5-minute sets in front of an appreciative audience.

Your Green Zone

An oasis of calm in the heart of the city

As well as having its own spacious, communal gardens designed by renowned landscape architects, Zone is situated in one of London's greenest boroughs, Lambeth. Just moments away, you can explore luscious green spaces such as the flower garden at Kennington Park, the famous Vauxhall Pleasure Gardens and even the Vauxhall City Farm - a fascinating community resource within earshot of Big Ben.

So, whether you love to walk, cycle or do activities like yoga while close to nature, or you simply like to relax with a coffee in a park, there are plenty of beautiful spaces to discover near your new home.

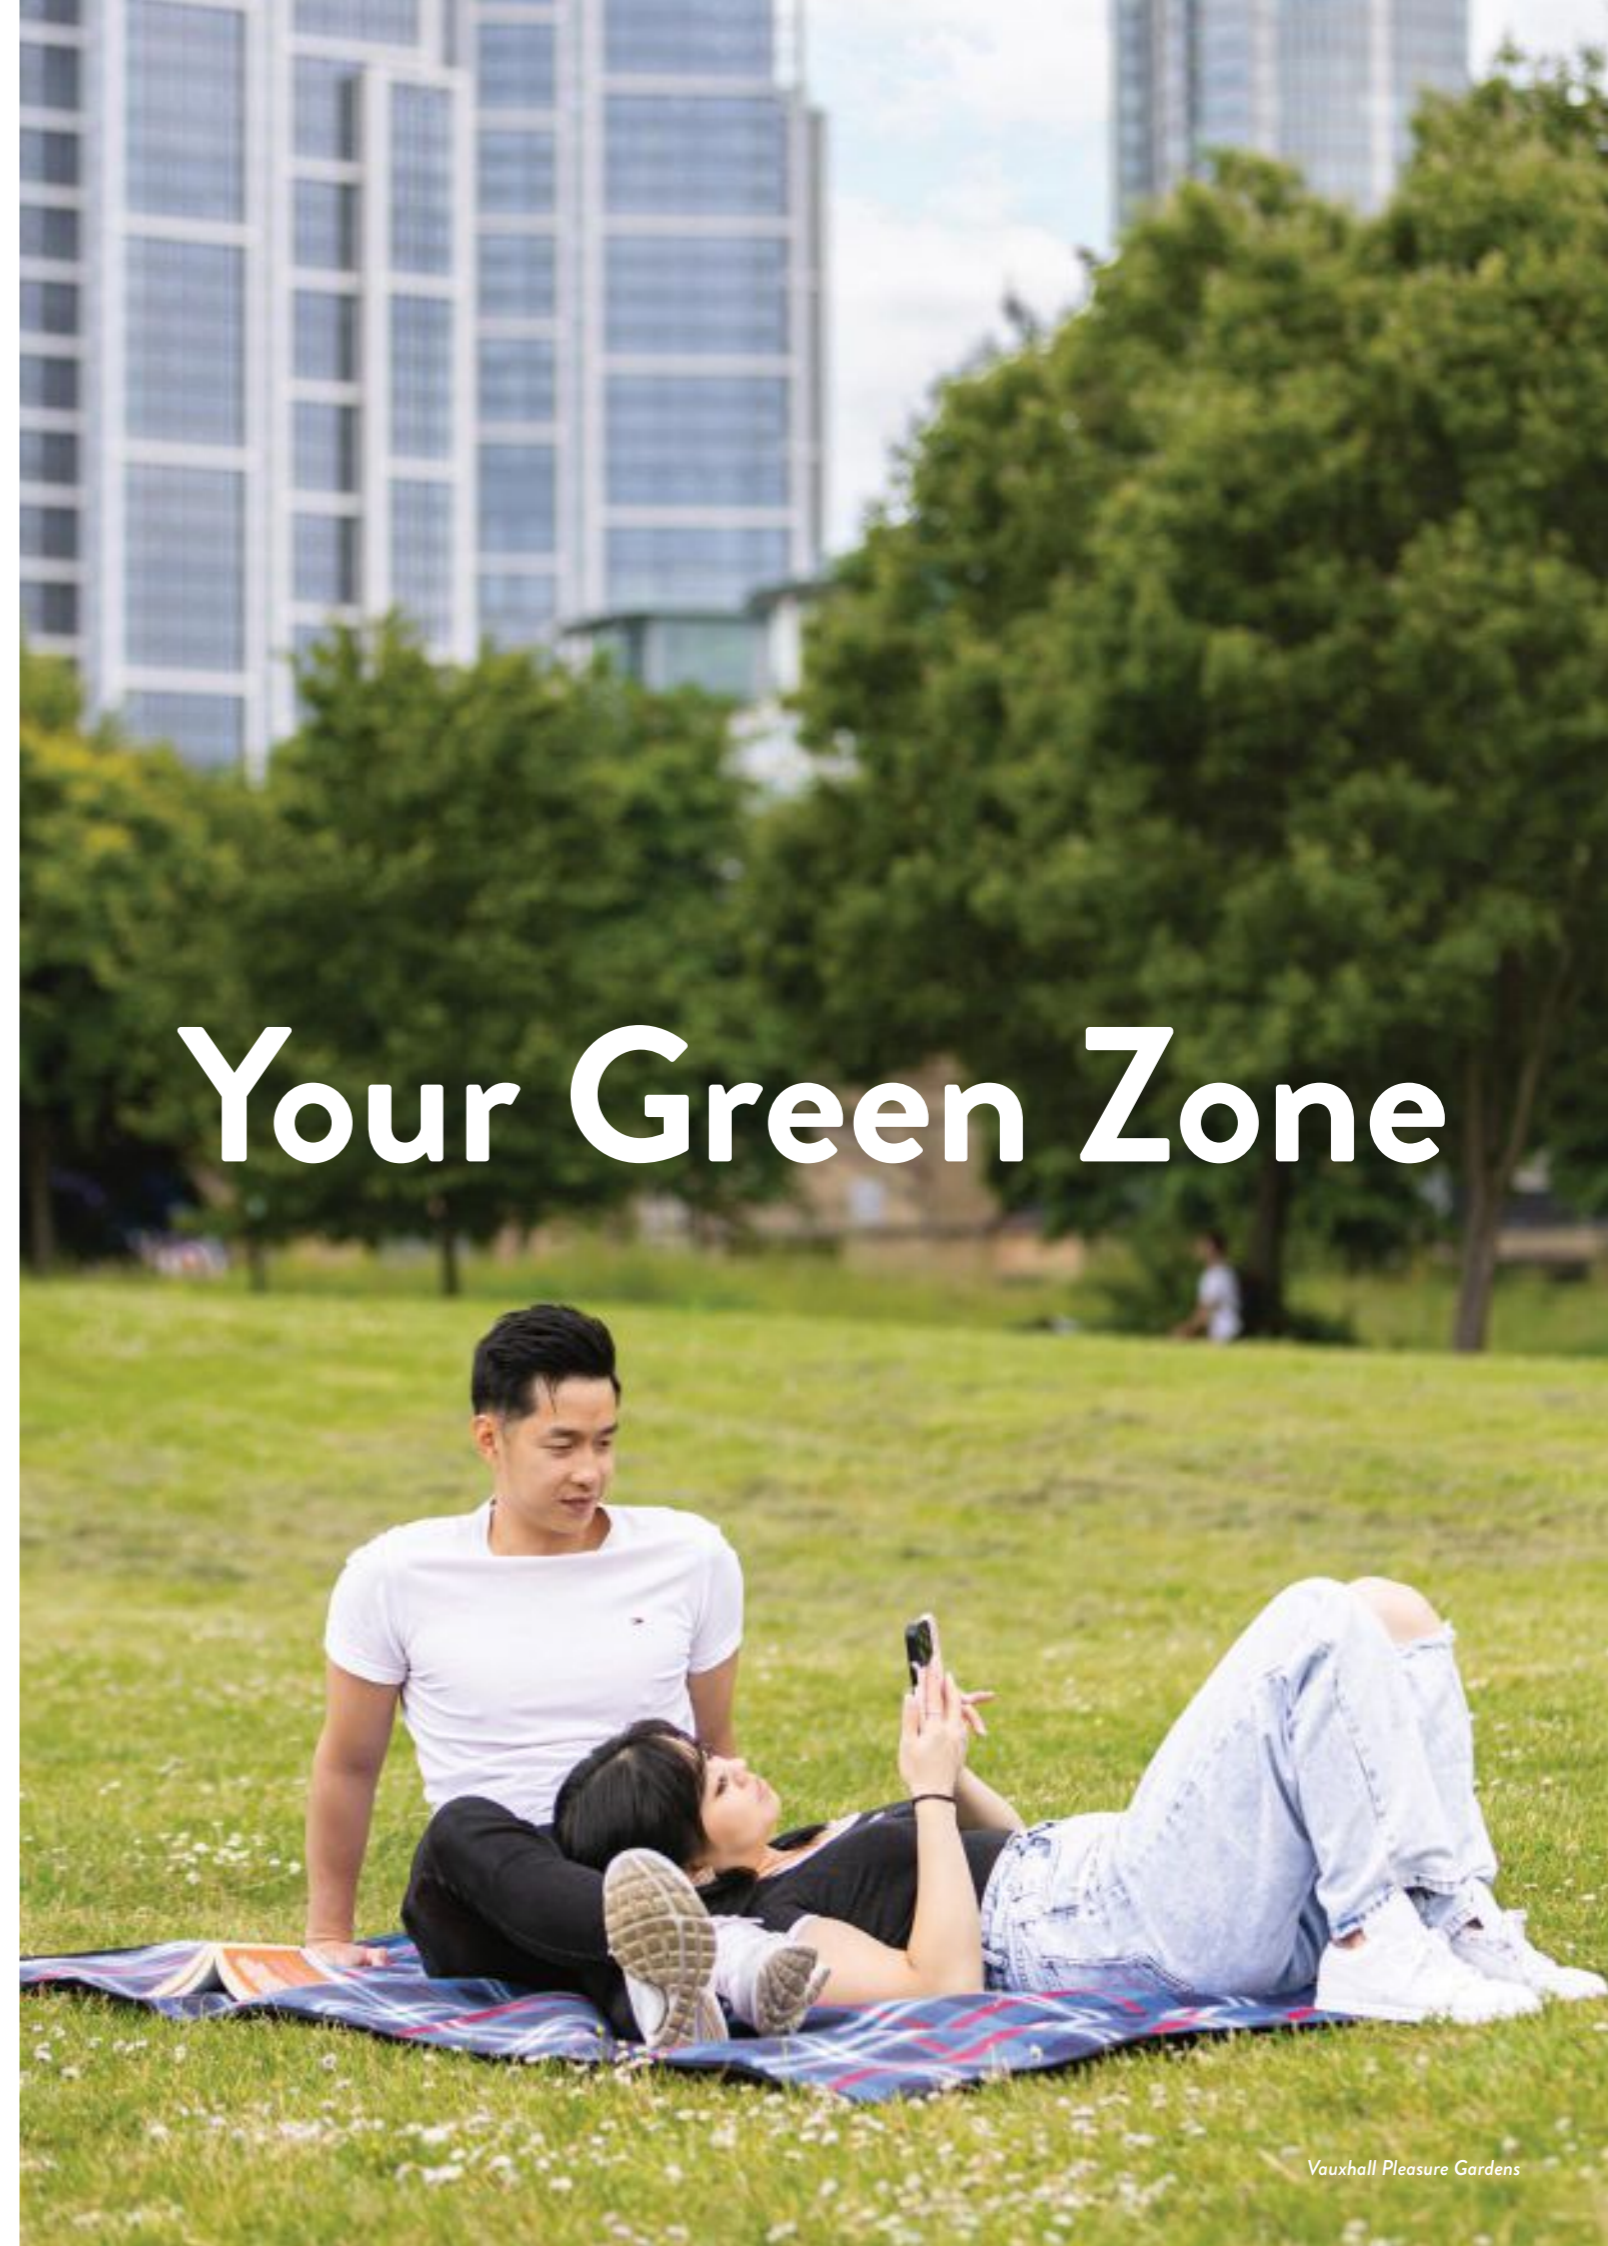

Lambeth has over 60 public parks and open spaces, including the magnificent Kennington Park, which is just a five-minute walk away.

This Victorian-era park covers some 20 acres and offers everything from wooded areas, sports facilities and a flower garden with a water feature through to The Hive – a social enterprise that promotes beekeeping, urban greening and farming.

Also nearby is Bonnington Square Garden, which was created in the 1990s on the site that had been bombed during the Second World War. Exclusively maintained by local residents, the garden is open to all and is lit up at night to create a serene and magical space.

Another unmissable green space is Vauxhall Pleasure Gardens, a Green Flag Award-winning park that's a Local Site of Importance for Nature Conservation and is also home to Vauxhall City Farm. There's also a riding school and The Old Dairy Café, which is situated next to attractive pleasure gardens and paddocks.

In The Zone

Kennington Park

At Zone, keeping fit couldn't be simpler. As well as being near some great parks, you'll be minutes away from many excellent sporting facilities.

Oval Village has its own gym, while other local options include the no-contract PureGym London Oval, offering a digital studio and personal training, plus Vauxhall Leisure Centre, with a 25m swimming pool, over 100 smart technology fitness stations plus a cycle studio, sauna and steam rooms.

If you're a fan of team sports, the Love Basketball Academy is a short walk away, there are hockey and tennis facilities at Kennington Park and – of course – there's the Ken Barrington Indoor Cricket Centre at the Kia Oval. Powerleague Football is famously the local home of 5-a-side and small-team football.

The Thames Path

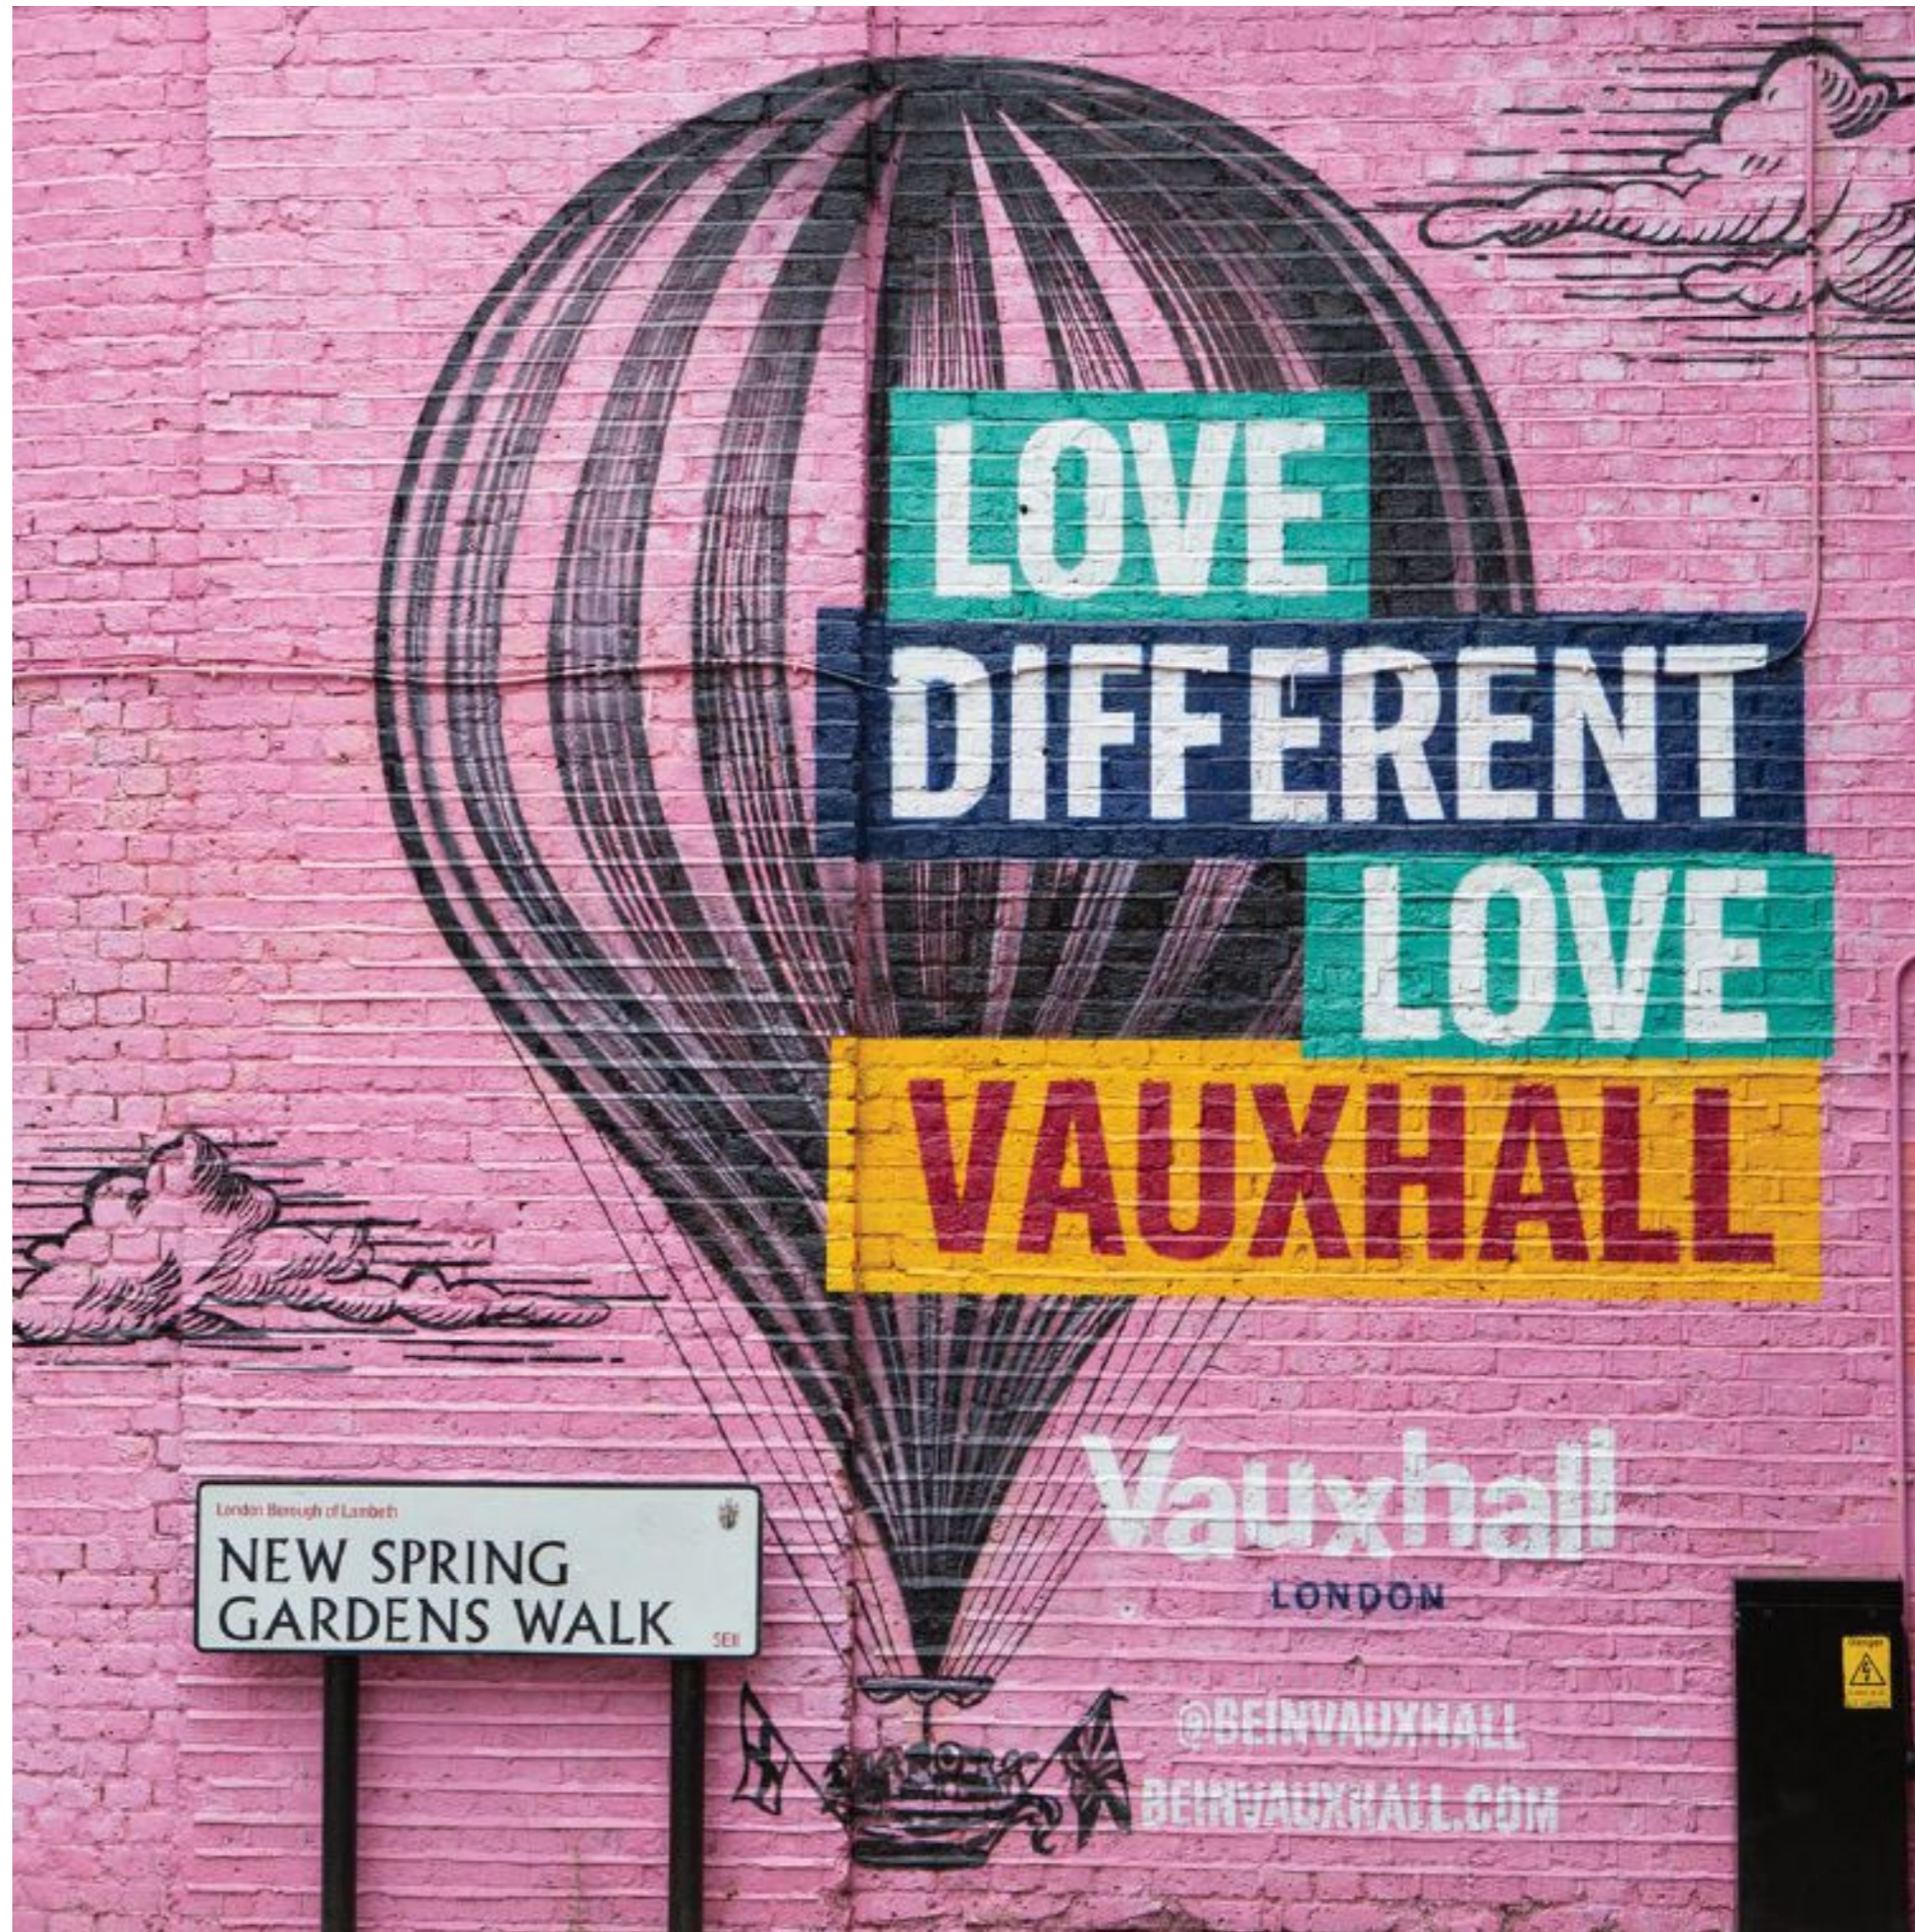

The landmark The Kia Oval Cricket Ground

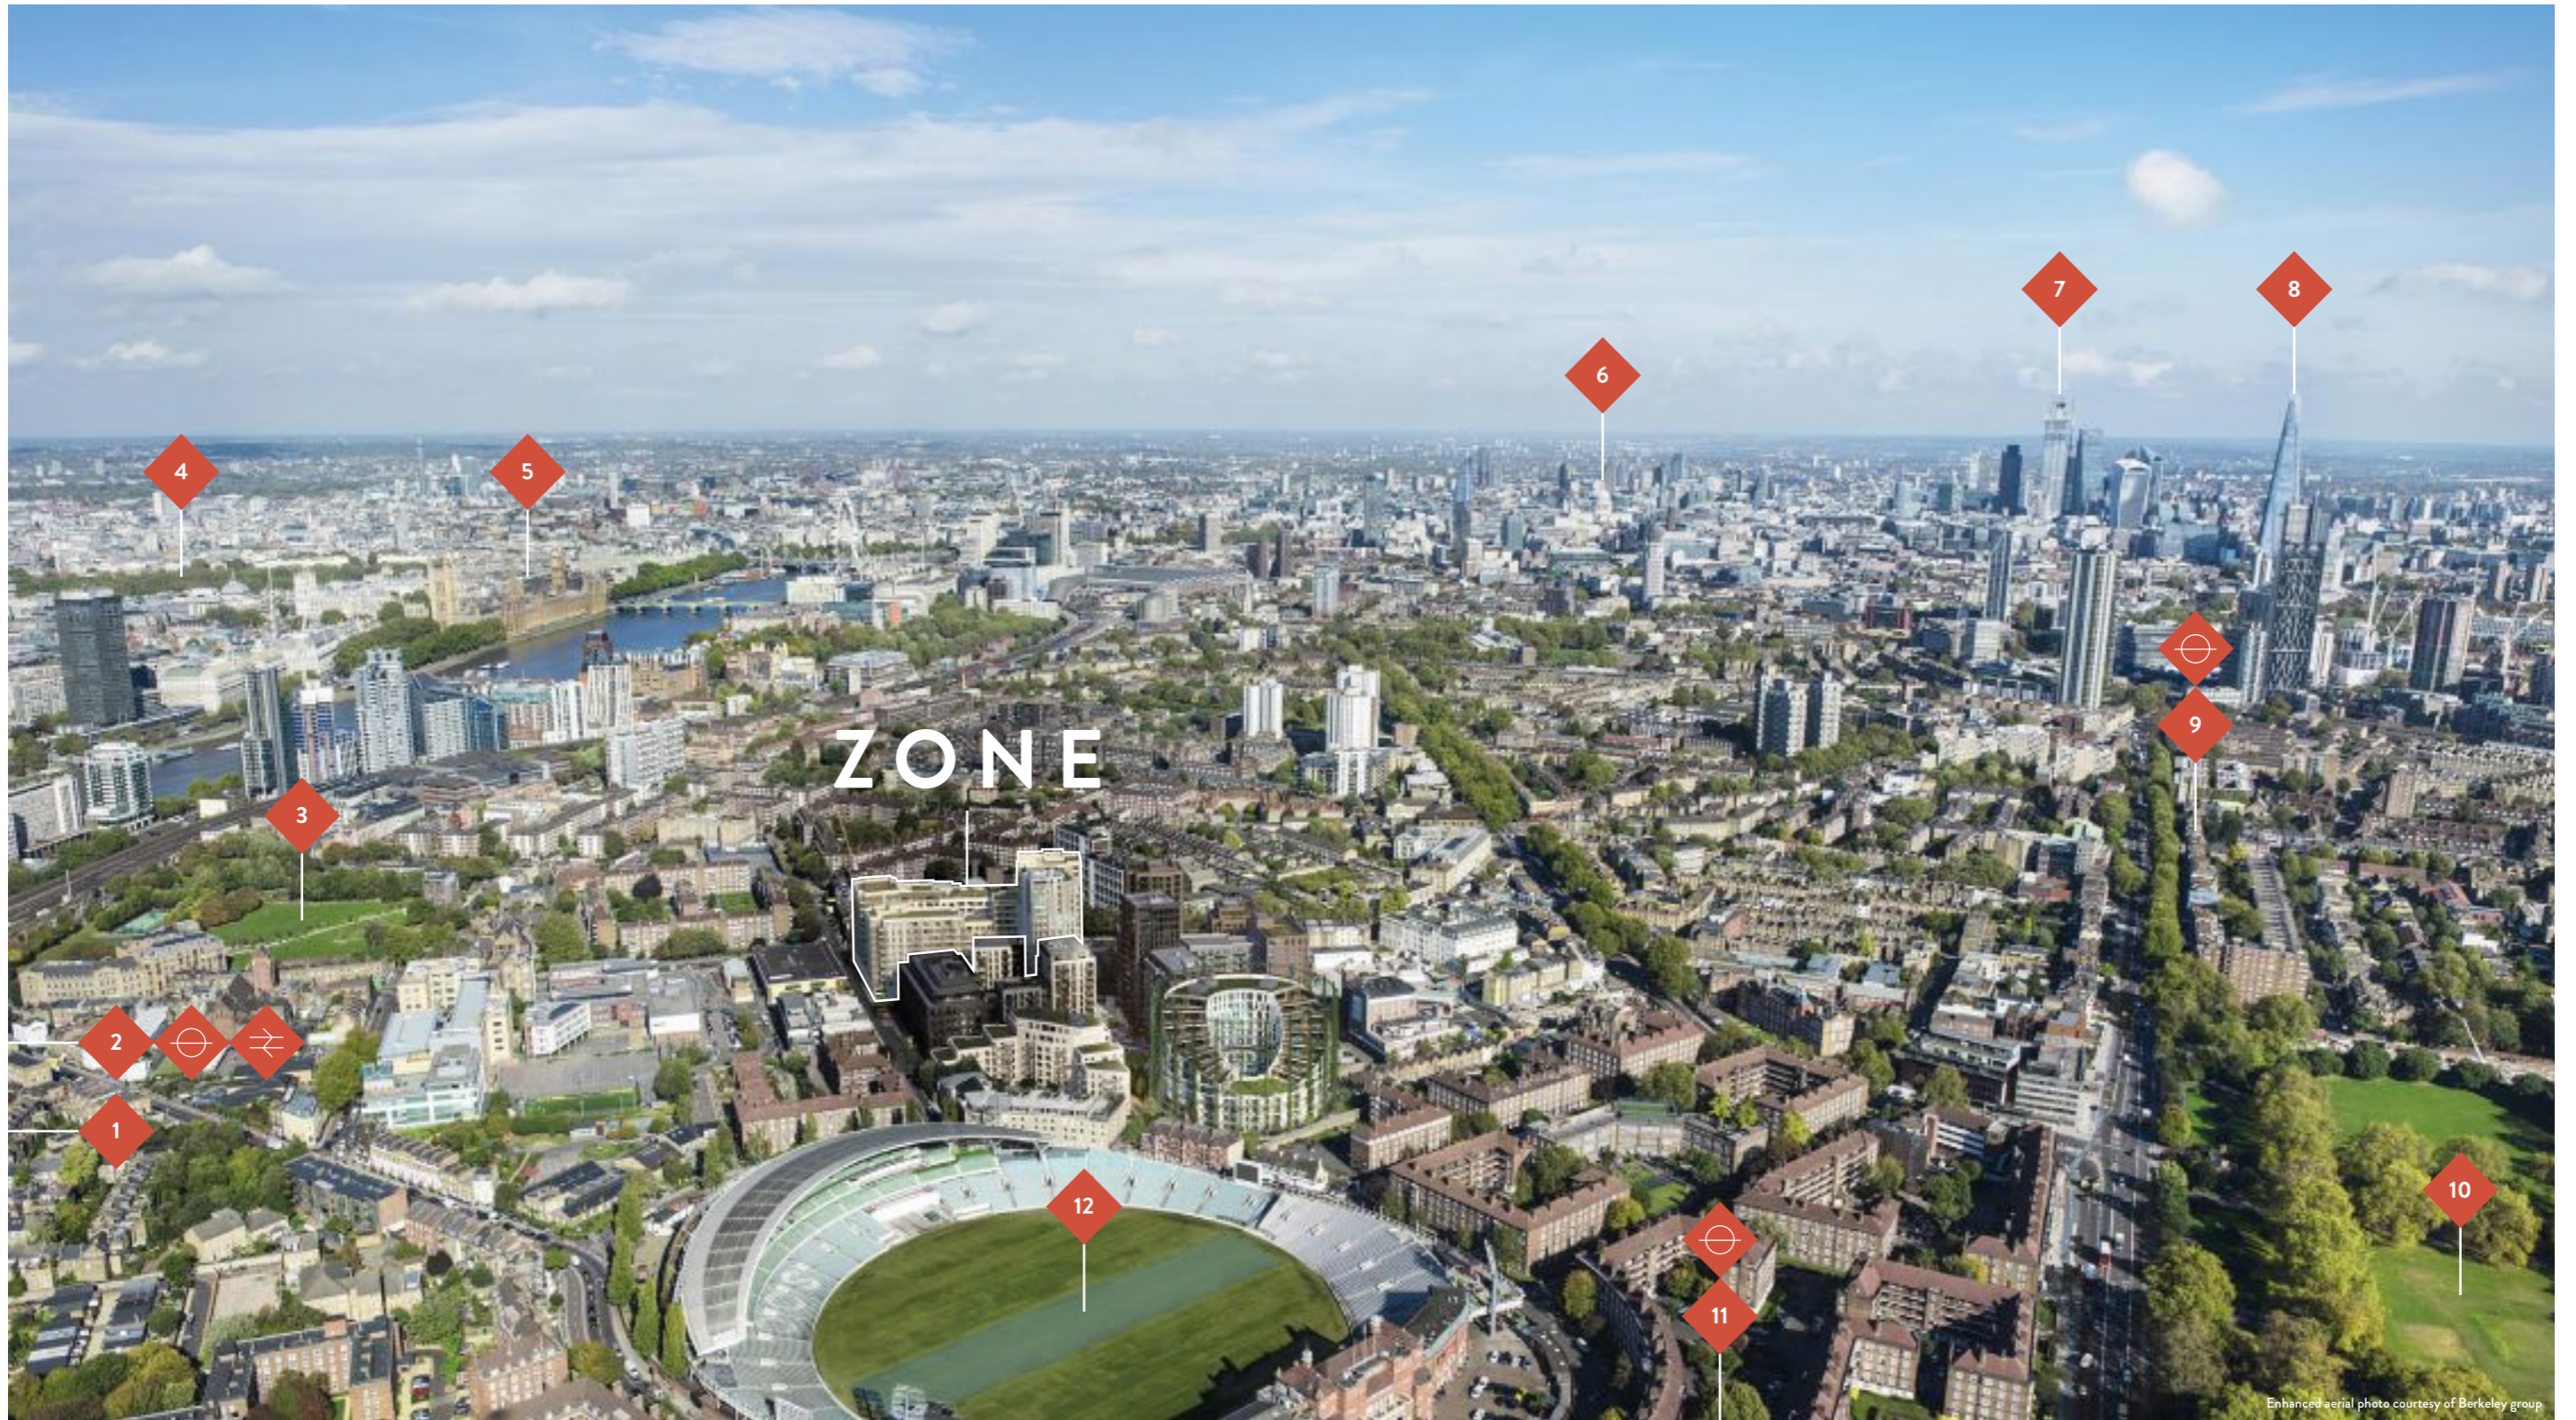

For more unusual activities, try Flow Dance London for ballroom and Latin dance, The Vauxhall East and Vauxhall West Climbing Centres for indoor climbing facilities, or – for something completely different – the Whistle Punks Urban Axe Throwing centre, where you can learn some impressive trick shots.

Your Artistic Zone

Your vibrant local art scene

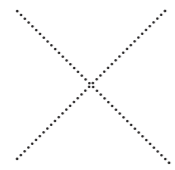

Vauxhall is fast establishing itself as one of London's artistic hubs. The Newport Street Gallery stages exhibitions of work from Damien Hirst's art collection. Gasworks is home to a gallery and 13 artist studios, with alumni having gone on to win or be nominated for awards such as the Turner Prize, Absolut Award and Pinchuk Art Prize. Other local gems include the Danielle Arnaud Gallery and White Crypt, while the renowned Tate Britain is just across the Thames in Millbank.

Theatre fan Tabby found her dream home at Zone through Shared Ownership with Peabody

“I would definitely recommend Zone at Oval Village to anyone wanting to move to London. There’s no way I would have been able to afford to buy a home so close to Central London on the open market, so Shared Ownership was a fantastic option. It has meant I can enjoy London living, without the extortionate price tag that normally comes with buying in London.”

“The rooftop garden has 360 degree views across London and you can see every single one of the typical London tourist attractions.”

Shared Ownership Zone

Shared Ownership is a part buy/part rent scheme that makes it possible for first time buyers to purchase a property that otherwise would not have been affordable. It is a government-backed scheme launched in 2006 for people who are unable to afford to buy a home at full market value.

Shared Ownership homes in London help you get on the property ladder in an affordable way. You can usually buy an initial share of 25% to 75% of the value of a property, and you'll need to take out a mortgage to pay for your share of the home's purchase price.

You will then pay a subsidised rent on the share you don't buy, and there will also be a monthly service charge to be paid on your home.
