- ▶ Sitting Room
- ▶ Off-Street Parking

A well presented family home situated in a quiet cul-de-sac off the popular residential Copse Road, with convenient access to Haslemere Station, Woolmer Hill School and acres of land owned by the National Trust.

The accommodation provides excellent family living space and comprises an entrance porch leading through to the large front aspect dining room with newly installed wood burning stove and bay window with shutters. From here the kitchen (with serving hatch opening from the dining room) enjoys views out over the rear garden with rural glimpses of Linchmere Common beyond. A downstairs cloakroom and separate utility space gives access to the garden. A cosy front aspect sitting room completes the downstairs accommodation. Upstairs there are three good sized bedrooms and a family bathroom.

Outside, to the front, is a shingled driveway with parking for two vehicles. The rear garden is mainly laid to lawn, with a patio and garden shed; there is also useful gated access leading to the front of the property.

Location

The property is located in the hamlet of Hammer on the western fringes of Haslemere. The popular Camelsdale primary school, two Public Houses and local village shop with Post Office are within walking distance. Haslemere town centre is about 2 miles away and offers a good range of independent shops, boutiques, restaurants, coffee houses, Waitrose and M&S Food Hall. There are good road links to London and the south coast and the mainline station (1½ miles away) offers a fast train service to London Waterloo in around 49 minutes. There are excellent schools locally for all ages and leisure facilities including The Haslemere Leisure Centre. The area surrounding the property has some stunning countryside, much of which is in the ownership of the National Trust and offers excellent walking and riding opportunities.
