Description

The property comprises a modern four storey building, behind a Grade II listed façade. 75-76 Francis Road has two separate pedestrian entrance doors from the front elevation, there is one central staircase but there is scope to split the floors.

The accommodation is over lower ground, ground, first and second floors with modern floorplates providing flexibility in terms of configuration to suit occupier needs i.e. there is a mixture of cellular offices and open plan layout with board room located on the lower ground floor.

Location

Francis Road is situated in close proximity to the Hagley Road (A456), the main road in to Birmingham City Centre from the west and the last junction before the Five Ways roundabout. The location sits outside the chargeable, Birmingham Clean Air Zone and is readily accessible, being well served by public transport links, including Five Ways train station and the Metro which provides direct access into the City centre.
