The development of Queens Hills is located on the fringes of Costessey. Local schooling, shops and food outlets are located within walking distance, and a regular bus link into Norwich City centre is provided. The nearby Longwater Retail Park offers a fantastic range of shops and supermarket, whilst the A47 leads to Norwich and the A11.

SETTING THE SCENE

The property can be approached just off from this popular street with a brick weave frontage and small garden space housing planting beds and a low level hedge. The main door is found at the very front with a tiled and pitched roof above.

THE GRAND TOUR

Stepping inside, you are first met with a handy porch style entrance featuring a low level radiator, making the ideal space to slip off coats and shoes before heading up the stairs to the main living accommodation. As you round the stairs, you are met with a generously sized open plan living space well lit from all angles courtesy of its dual aspect uPVC double glazed windows. The kitchen space initially has wood effect flooring underfoot with an array of wall and base mounted storage set around wooden work surfaces. Integrated appliances include a fridge/freezer, washing machine and oven with gas hob and extraction above, plus an inset stainless steel sink. Opening from the kitchen is a well proportioned sitting room area with carpeted flooring underfoot and wall mounted radiators. This room also benefits from a handy built in storage cupboard.
